

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. THE NEW ELECTION LAWS.

ELECTION DAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1892.

Suggestions to the Political Committees and Election Officers.

CHAPTER I.

THE NEW ELECTION CODE.

The State of New York will hold its State election in 1892 upon Tuesday, November 8. The election of a President of the United States takes place the same day, and the voters of the State will, therefore, ballot for presidential electors as well as for State officials. There will be elected at this election the following officers :

Thirty-six Presidential Electors.

A Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Thirty-four Congressmen.

One hundred and twenty-eight Assemblymen.

Two Supreme Court Judges.

Three County Judges.

Four Surrogates.

Six Sheriffs.

Ten County Clerks.

Thirty-four District Attorneys.

Five County Treasurers.

A Mayor of New York and several other cities.

The Legislature of 1892, passed laws reapportioning the congressional districts, reducing the number of election inspectors in New York from four to three, and modifying the Ballot Reform Law in some essential particulars. It then passed an election code, prepared by Professor Charles A. Collin, of the law department of Cornell University, Daniel Magone, of Ogdensburgh, former Collector of New York, and ex-Senator John J. Linson, of Kingston, the members of the Statutory Revision Commission. These same gentlemen also prepared a penal code containing all the laws punishing violations of the election laws of the State. This penal code also became a law.

Messrs. Collin, Magone and Linson in their election code have combined in one statute all former election laws from 1842 to 1892; so that one can find in one law the ballot reform acts, the registration acts, the primary election acts, the laws relating to the county boards of canvassers and the State board of canvassers, and the laws concerning the election of Congressmen and of electors of President and Vice-President.

All former election laws of the State, except those contained in city charters, are repealed; and city elections themselves are affected in a large degree by the Election Code. Thus chapter 262 of the Laws of 1890, the original ballot reform law, and the amendatory act passed in 1891, are repealed, and the ballot reform provisions of the election laws are put in the new Election Code. The Ballot Reform Act is changed in form by the revisers, its language greatly modified, sections of it are transposed; and all in all these modifications are so numerous that every election officer will find it prudent to carefully examine the Election Code in these respects before attempting to execute his duties.

CHANGES IN THE BALLOT LAW.

The members of the Statutory Revision Commission made several changes of importance in the Ballot Reform Law. By one amendment it is provided that the designation of the polling place for which each official ballot is prepared shall be made upon the face of the "stub" instead of upon the back of the ballots, as under the Ballot Reform Acts of 1889 and 1890. The designation of the polling place upon the back of the ballot would easily lead to its identification if it should be used at the wrong polling place, and it was to prevent the loss of their votes by innocent voters using such misplaced ballots that the Legislature of 1892 made the amendment to the Ballot Reform Act described. So much for the face of the stub.

The back of the "stub" is to contain, as in 1890 and 1891, only the printed number of each official ballot. On the back of each official ballot, below the stub, there is to be printed in great primer Roman condensed capitals, the indorsement "official ballot for....." and after the word "for" there is to follow the date of the election, and a fac simile of the signature of the officer or clerk of the board providing the ballots, except that ballots containing the names of candidates for commissioners of excise of towns are to be indorsed "excise" only and other ballots for town meetings not held at the same time with the general election are to be indorsed "town" only.

The names of all offices to be filled are to be printed upon the face of each ballot below the perforated line separating the ballot from its "stub." The law declares that the names of the offices to be filled shall be printed upon every ballot "in brevier lower-case type within the spaces respectively allowed therefor." It further declares that "under the name of each office stated upon the ballot" the name of each candidate nominated therefor by or by virtue of the kind of certificates to which such kind of ballot corresponds shall be printed in brevier capitals within the spaces respectively allowed therefor. The names on each ballot shall be in a single column, except that the names of candidates for presidential electors and the names of inspectors of election, if ten or more, shall be in two columns. If the full number of candidates for the offices specified on any one kind of ballots shall not have been nominated by or in pursuance of the certificates from which such kind of ballots is prepared, blank spaces shall be left on each ballot of such kind where the names of candidates would appear except for such failure to nominate."

PROHIBITION OF USE OF NAME.

The members of the Statutory Revision Commission also put in a more decisive form in the Election Code the caveat clause; the provision enabling party candidates to prohibit the printing of their names upon the ballots as independent candidates. That clause read as follows in the amended Ballot Act of 1891:

"The name of a person nominated under the provisions of section 3 (in relation to party nominations) of this act shall not be placed upon a ticket put in nomination by certificate as prescribed by section 5 (in relation to independent nominations) of this act, when such person shall have given notice at least fifteen days before election to the officers with whom his original certificate of nomination was filed by a writing signed and duly acknowledged that he does not wish his name placed upon such ticket. There shall also be as many different kinds of ballots as may be required to comply with the directions hereinbefore authorized of the person or persons designated and appointed as provided in section 5 of this act upon certificates of nomination, but the person or persons so designated and appointed shall not require the name of any candidate nominated in such a certificate to be printed upon more than one kind of ballot."

Messrs. Collin, Magone and Linson made this amendment read as follows:

"The name of a person having a party nomination shall not be placed upon an official ballot of independent nomination, if such person shall have given notice at least fifteen days before the election for which the ballot is prepared, to the officer with whom his party certificate of nomination is filed, by a writing signed and acknowledged by him, that he does not wish his name placed upon any ballot of independent nomination, or upon such particular ballot of independent nomination."

PERIOD OF INDEPENDENT NOMINATIONS CHANGED.

Messrs. Collin, Magone and Linson furthermore in their election code have lengthened the period between election day and the final day when such nominations can be made and the printing of official ballots be secured. For instance, under the original Ballot Reform Act of 1890 and the amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891 an independent nomination for a State office could be filed with the Secretary of State up to a day within fifteen days of election day. The new Election Code provides that no independent nomination for a State office can be filed later than a day within twenty days of election day. Formerly it will also be observed independents had ten days after a party nomination was made for a State office, if it was delayed to the last possible moment, to make their nominations for the same office. Under the amendment just made this period is shortened up to five days.

The same principle of increasing the period between election day and the final day when independent certificates can be filed is pursued in the Election Code regarding the lesser offices. Thus under the Ballot Reform Act of 1890 and the amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891 an independent nomination for a county office could be filed with a county clerk, or if New York, with the board of police commissioners, or if in Brooklyn, with the board of elections, up to a period within twelve days before election. Under the Election Code this period is lengthened by three days; no independent nomination papers can be filed in a less period than fifteen days. The interval here between the final filing of party nomination papers, and the final filing of independent nomination papers, is five days. It was eight days.

NOMINATIONS IN MINOR CITIES.

Provision is made in the Election Code, as it was not in either the Ballot Reform Act of 1890, or the Amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891, for the filing of nomination papers in the minor cities of the State. The period before election day when the final papers can be filed, is somewhat less than in New York and Brooklyn. Thus the Election Code declares that those certificates "required to be filed with the city clerk of any other city (than Brooklyn and New York)", if party nominations must be filed "at least ten and not more than twenty days; if independent nominations, at least eight and not more than twenty days." In comparison with New York and Brooklyn, in which the latest day for filing party nominations is twenty days before election day, this is a reduction of ten days, so far as the lesser cities of the State are concerned — party nominations in the minor cities can be made ten days nearer election day. It will be perceived, also, that certificates of independent nominations can be filed in the minor cities of the State up to within eight days of election; and that there is an interval of only two days between the final day upon which a party nomination and an independent nomination in these minor cities.

TOWN NOMINATIONS.

Another new feature respecting nomination certificates is a division of the periods for the filing of party and of independent certificates in towns and villages. The amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891 merely said that "nominations for town and village offices shall be made and certified substantially as hereinbefore provided, but the certificates thereof shall be filed with the clerk not less than five days before the day of election." The new Election Code declares that those certificates "required to be filed with a town or village clerk, if party nominations, shall be filed at least six and not more than twenty days before election day," and "if independent nominations, at least five and not more than twenty days" before election day.

OBJECTIONS TO MARKED BALLOTS.

The new Election Code also modifies the amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891 in respect to ballots presumably marked for identification. The act of 1891 declared that legal notice should be taken of any ballot or paster ballot written upon or marked in any way "with the intent that the same may be identified." The new Election Code declares that legal notice should be taken of any ballot or paster ballot written upon or marked in any way "for the purpose of identification." The Election Code now gives the following directions to the inspectors of election respecting marked ballots :

“When an inspector of election or other election officer or duly authorized watcher shall, during a canvass of the votes, or immediately after the completion thereof, declare his belief that any particular ballot, paster, or paster ballot affixed thereto, has been written upon or marked in any way for the purpose of identification, the inspectors or canvassers shall write on the back of such ballot the words ‘objected to because marked for identification,’ or words in substance to that effect, and sign their names thereto, and attach each such ballot to their written statement of the result of the canvass. Each such ballot shall be counted by them the same as if not so objected to.”

Careful provision is also made for the recording of the number of ballots suspected to have been marked for the purpose of identification. Section 115 of the Election Code makes the following declaration:

“§ 115. Certified statement of canvass.—Upon the completion of the canvass, the inspectors, except in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, shall make and sign a written statement thereof, showing the date of the election, the number of the district, the town or ward and the county in which it was held, the whole number of ballots received for each office, the whole number cast for each person for such office, and the whole number of ballots objected to because marked for identification, written out at length in words, and at the end thereof a certificate signed by the inspectors to the effect that the statement is in all respects correct.’

Regarding the official ballots and the preservation of a sample of each one, the Election Code further says to the election inspectors:

“Such inspectors shall securely attach to such statement one official ballot of each kind voted for all the officers to be chosen at such election. They shall state in words, at full length and written partly on such ballot and partly on the paper to which it shall be attached, the whole number of the ballots which were received, having the same names for the same offices as the one attached. If two or more ballots cast, varying from every official ballot, shall have thereon the names of the same candidates for the same offices throughout, only one of such ballots shall be annexed to such statement and there shall be written partly upon it and partly upon the paper to which it is attached, a statement of the number of such ballots cast. The ballots so attached with such statements so written shall be deemed a part of the certified statement of the canvass by the inspectors. All other ballots cast at such election not containing the names of the same candidates for the same offices as appear upon any other ballot so cast shall be securely attached to such statement. Unless such election be an election of town, city, village or school officers held at a different time from a general election, such inspectors shall forthwith and before adjourning make two certified copies of such certified statement of the result of the canvass."

THE EXCLUSION OF MARKED BALLOTS.

The amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891 provided for a review by the courts of the action of boards of inspectors in counting alleged marked ballots. It made the following declaration respecting the matter:

"Such ballots shall be counted in estimating the result of an election; but within thirty days after the filing of the certificate declaring such result a writ of mandamus may issue out of the Supreme Court against the Board of Canvassers or officers acting as such board, by whom the ballots were counted upon the application of any candidate voted for at the election to require a recount of the votes, and all questions relating to the validity of such ballots, and as to whether they were properly counted shall be determined in such proceeding. All such ballots shall be preserved for at least one year, and until the questions raised by such writ shall be finally determined. Election boards and boards of canvassers shall be continued in existence for the purposes of such proceedings."

Messrs. Collin, Magone and Linson have rewritten this provision in the following form in their Election Code:

§ 118. Judicial investigation of ballots objected to as marked for identification.—If any such certified statement of the result of a canvass shall show that any of the ballots counted were objected to as marked for identification, a writ of mandamus may, upon the application of any candidate voted for at such election, within thirty days thereafter, issue out of the supreme court, if such statement be filed in a county clerk's office, to the board of county canvassers, or if in any city clerk's office or in any town or village clerk's office, to the board or body of canvassers if any of the returns of the inspectors or canvassers of the election district, and otherwise to the inspectors of election making such statement, requiring a recount of the votes. If the court shall, in the proceedings upon such writ, determine that any such ballot was marked for the purpose of identification, in any manner not proper or necessary for expressing a vote for a person for an office to be filled at such election, the court may order such ballot to be excluded upon a recount of such votes. Inspectors and canvassers of election districts, and boards of canvassers, shall continue in office for the purpose of such proceedings.

Authority has always been possessed by the courts to compel county boards of canvassers to reconvene to correct errors made by them in canvassing election returns. The Election Code deals with this important subject in the following manner:

"§ 133 Mandamus for correction of errors by county boards of canvassers.—The supreme court may, upon affidavit presented by any voter showing that errors have occurred in any statement or determination made by any county board of canvassers, make an order requiring such board to correct such errors, or show cause why such correction should not be made. If such board fail or neglect to make such correction, or to show cause as aforesaid, the court may compel such board by writ of mandamus to correct such errors; and if it shall have made its determination and dissolved, to reconvene for the purpose of making such corrections. Such meeting of the board of county canvassers shall be deemed a continuation of its regular session for the purpose of making such corrections as the court shall order, and the statement and certificates shall be made and filed as the court shall direct, and shall stand in lieu of the original certificates and statements so far as they shall vary therefrom, and shall in all places be treated with the same effect as if such corrected statement had been a part of the original required by law."

DISABLED VOTERS DEFINED.

The physical disability clause of the Ballot Reform Act of 1890, and of the amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891, is amplified, and "physical disability" is defined by the Election Code. The Ballot Reform Law said, that "any voter who declares under oath to the inspectors of election that, by reason of physical disability, he is unable to prepare his ballot without assistance, shall be permitted to bring with him to such booth or compartment a person of his own selection, who may retire with such disabled voter to the booth or compartment and assist him in the preparation of the ballot."

The Election Code substitutes for that phrase the following, stating the various kinds of physical disability which render a voter excusable in asking for assistance in preparing his ballot:

"Not more than one person shall occupy one voting booth at the same time, except that a voter who shall declare under oath to the inspectors of election that, by reason of total blindness, loss of both hands, such total inability in both hands that he can not use either hand for ordinary purposes, or physical disability by reason of crippled condition or disease to enter the booth alone, he is unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, may select a person for that purpose, who shall be allowed to pass within the guard-rail and receive such ballots and to enter the voting booth with such voter and there assist him in preparing his ballot. The person so selected shall not in any manner request, or seek to persuade or induce such voter to vote any particular ballot or for any particular candidate, and shall not directly or indirectly reveal to any other person the name of any candidate voted for by such voter, or any thing occurring within such voting booth, and he shall not remain within the guard-rail longer than is necessary to assist such disabled voter."

GOING WITHIN THE GUARD-RAIL TWICE.

The Election Code continues the provision of the Ballot Reform Law which permitted a voter if he spoiled one set of ballots to obtain another, and so on until he shall have received four in all. Yet there is the following provision in section 105 in regard to such voters as go outside the guard-rail after obtaining one set of ballots:

"A voter may, after receiving one set of official ballots and before voting, return all such ballots to the ballot clerks and then pass outside the guard-rail; and afterward, while the polls are open, enter once again within the guard-rail for the purpose of voting, and receive and prepare his ballots and vote, the same as if he had not once before been within the guard-rail and received his ballots therefor. But not more than two sets in all of official ballots shall, on such account, be delivered to any voter, and no voter shall pass within the guard-rail more than twice, at the same election, for the purpose of voting."

CHAPTER II.

THE ELECTION PENAL CODE.

One of the new election laws is the Election Penal Code. This provides for the punishment of misdemeanors at political caucuses and conventions; of false registration; of the mutilation, destruction or loss of a registry list; of the misconduct of registry officers; of the failure of a house dweller to answer inquiries; of the removal, mutilation or destruction of election supplies, poll-lists or cards of instruction; of a refusal to permit employes to attend an election; and finally of misconduct in relation to certificates of nomination and official ballots. The act contains the various penal provisions formerly contained in the Ballot Reform Act of 1890, the amended Ballot Reform Act of 1891, the City and Rural Registration Act of 1890, and the Corrupt Practices Act of 1890. It thus collects in one statute the various penalties for violations of the election laws scattered through various other statutes. The language in these former statutes is modified in some respects in the process of codification.

Section 41p, No. 1, in the Corrupt Practices Act of 1890, reads :

"§ 41. What is unlawful.—It shall be unlawful for any person, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person :

1. To pay, lend or contribute, or offer or promise to pay, lend or contribute any money or other valuable consideration, to or for any voter, or to or for any other person, to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting at any election, or to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting at such election for any particular person or persons, or to induce such voter to come to the polls or remain away from the polls at such election, or on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting or having voted or refrained from voting for any particular person, or having come to the poll or remained away from the polls at such election."

This section has been amended by the dropping of the sentence "to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting at any election," and the section reads as follows :

"41p. Giving considerations for franchise.—Any person who directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person,

"Pays, lends, or contributes, or offers or promises to pay, lend or contribute any money or other valuable consideration to or for any voter, or to or for any other person, to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting at such election for any particular person or persons, or to induce such voter to come to the polls or remain away from the polls at such election or on account of such voter having voted or refrained from voting, or having voted or refrained from voting for any particular person, or having come to the polls or remained away from the polls at such election."

This section also of the Penal Code declares that any one who thus bribes a voter is guilty of an infamous crime, punishment by imprisonment for not less than three months, nor more than one year, and, in addition, forfeits any office to which he may have been elected at the election with reference to which such offense was committed.

CHAPTER III.

THE NEW CONGRESSIONAL APPORTIONMENT LAW.

The new law apportioning the Congressional districts of the State, chapter 295 of the Laws of 1892, changes all the thirty-four districts in the State except five, namely: The old fourteenth, renumbered sixteenth, containing Westchester county and the twenty-fourth Assembly district of New York; the old fifteenth, renumbered seventeenth, containing Rockland, Sullivan and Orange counties; the old nineteenth, renumbered the twentieth, containing the county of Albany; the thirtieth, renumbered the thirty-first, containing the county of Monroe; and the thirty-fourth, containing the counties of Allegany, Cattaraugus and Chautauqua.

The most recent election figures bearing upon the political complexion of the new Congressional districts are those of 1891. These disclose the political attitude of voters in the new districts with considerable positiveness except in the case of four districts, to wit: The seventeenth district, composed of the counties of Rockland, Sullivan and Orange, in which in 1888 the Republican candidate for Congressman had a plurality of seventy-four votes, whereas in 1891 the counties of the same district gave the Democratic candidate for Governor a plurality of 280 votes; the new eighteenth Congressional district, made up of the counties of Putnam, Dutchess and Ulster, which, in 1888, gave a plurality for the Republican candidate for President of 1,937 votes, and yet, in 1891, gave a plurality for the Democratic candidate for Governor of 1,156; the new nineteenth Congressional district, composed of Columbia and Rensselaer counties, which in 1888 gave the Republican candidate for President a plurality of 718 votes, and, nevertheless, gave the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1888 a plurality of 1,807 votes; and the new twenty-first Congressional district, composed of the counties of Greene, Schoharie, Otsego, Montgomery and Schenectady, in which in 1888, upon the vote for President, there was a Republican plurality of 503 votes, although in 1891 the counties of the same district gave the Democratic candidate for Governor a plurality of 2,475 votes.

These comparisons are made with a view of obtaining some insight into the political character of the new Congressional districts mentioned above. In Presidential years, when a full vote is cast, while at the same time giving a statement showing the most recent political decisions of the counties mentioned, the vote they cast in the year 1891. In the case of the other thirty Congressional districts the party majorities in them in 1891 were given to the same political party which obtained them in 1888.

In the table given below there will be found the vote given in 1891 for the two leading candidates for Governor in the various counties which were afterwards combined into new Congressional districts by the Legislature of 1892, thus giving statistics showing the strength of political parties in these new Congressional districts:

CHAPTER IV.

THE LEGISLATIVE APPORTIONMENT LAW.

A law was passed by the Legislature, chapter 397 of the Laws of 1892, reapportioning the Senate and Assembly districts of the State. So far as the Senate districts are concerned, the law practically does not go into effect until the November election in 1893, since the terms of the Senators do not expire until the close of that year, and, therefore, Senators will not be elected until the preceding November. But the Assembly districts are disturbed the present year in counties which were assigned more than one Assemblyman; and every one of the 128 Assemblymen will be elected at the November election of 1892. The apportionment law provided that the boards of supervisors should meet in the following named counties upon the third Tuesday of July, 1892, and divide their respective counties into so many Assembly districts as they are entitled to under this act:

Counties.	Number of districts.
Albany.....	4
Dutchess.....	2
Erie.....	6
Kings.....	18
Monroe.....	3
New York.....	30
Oneida.....	2
Onondaga.....	3
Orange.....	2
Queens.....	3
Rensselaer.....	3
Steuben.....	2
Ulster.....	2
Westchester.....	3
Total	83

The rearrangement of the above Assembly districts renders it difficult to determine precisely their political character. But no such difficulty presents itself in the case of the forty-six counties which, with the exception of Fulton and Hamilton, each have one Assemblyman. In 1888 and 1891 these forty-six counties cast the following vote for the respective candidates for President and for Governor:

COUNTIES. (46.)	GOVERNOR, 1891.				PRESIDENT, 1888.

CHAPTER V.

THE VOTE CAST AND REGISTERED IN 1891.

The election of 1891 was no exception to the general rule that thousands of persons inscribed their names upon the books of the board of registry, or had their names put upon those books in rural neighborhoods upon the first day of registration, and yet neglected to vote. This was especially the case in rural parts of the State. This registration roll, however, will prove of high value to politicians, and especially so in rural neighborhoods, as showing the probable number of voters in each election district, and giving the names of all voters. In cities the requirement of the registration law that each voter shall personally appear and register undoubtedly, in 1891, kept off the registration books the names of a large number of voters living in each city election district. But in rural districts the committeemen of the political parties took pains to place upon the registration books the names of all voters with whose names they were familiar and the result was that in a large proportion of the election districts in the rural neighborhoods the books of registration were made an almost complete roll of the voters of each election district. The value of this roll to political committees in the canvassing for votes, in the circulation of political documents and newspapers, and in preparing the registration roll of the present year 1892, can not be overestimated.

A comparison of the total vote registered in each rural election district, with the total vote polled in 1891, will also enable political leaders and candidates for office to determine the relative proportion of their party vote they must bring out in each one of such election districts in order to secure party success. With the aim of giving persons interested in the subject an opportunity to make this comparison, the author of this pamphlet has included in it the vote of the State registered and cast at the general election of 1891 by election district. A few illustrations will show the value of this comparison. Below will be found the vote of various towns in various counties for President in 1888 and for Governor in 1891, with the total vote registered in those towns in 1891:

TOWN.	County.	Cleveland.	Harrison.	Flower.	Fassett.	Vote registered.
Knox	Albany.....	110	291	89	228	427
Alma	Allegany.....	125	142	113	96	400

The total vote by counties and the total vote registered, of course, shows more glaringly the number of voters who, although registered, did not vote at the fall election of 1891. The table given below shows the total vote by counties and the total vote registered in 1891:

The registered vote of New York city yearly, of course, receives the closest attention from politicians and voters as day after day it is registered upon the days of registration. Below is the record of registration in New York city upon these four days the four past years :

	1888.	1889.	1890.	1891.
First day.....	95,813	54,992	65,763	70,254

The total registered vote in each one of the twenty-four Assembly districts possessed by New York city in 1888, 1889, 1890 and 1891, for those years, was as follows :

	1888.	1889.	1890.	1891.

CHAPTER VI.

ELECTION DISTRICTS OF THE STATE.

No change was made in the direction of the Ballot Reform Law this year that election districts shall not contain more than 400 voters. The election districts were redivided last year to comply with that statute, and there will be few changes therefore in election districts this year except in the growing portion of the cities of New York, Brooklyn, Buffalo and other cities. The total number of election districts in the State in each county at the time of the election of 1891 was as follows:

Albany	147

CHAPTER VII.

THE STATE VOTE THE LAST TWO PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS.

The vote of New York State, one of the "pivotal" States, in the years 1884 and 1888, presidential years, will undoubtedly be analyzed closely county by county, owing to the approach of another election for President the present year 1892. The election statistics of 1884 and of 1888 are of great interest. The record for 1884 was as follows:

COUNTIES WON BY BLAINE, 1884, NORTH OF THE HARBEM RIVER.

COUNTIES.	Blaine.	Cleveland.	Blaine's majorities by counties.
Allegany	6,668	3,886	2,782

The New York Inspector Act.

CHAPTER 400, LAWS OF 1892.

AN ACT to amend chapter four hundred and ten of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, entitled "An act to consolidate into one act and to declare special and local laws affecting the public interests in the city of New York," with reference to the appointment of inspectors of elections and their duties.

APPROVED by the Governor April 30, 1892. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. Section eighteen hundred and fifty of chapter four hundred and ten of the laws of eighteen hundred and eighty-two, entitled "An act to consolidate into one act and to declare the special and local laws affecting public interests in the city of New York," is hereby amended so as to read as follows :

§ 1850. All inspectors of election and poll-clerks in the city and county of New York shall hereafter be appointed by the board of police, who shall also have the power to make all necessary removals and transfers, and fill all vacancies which may, from any cause, arise. It shall be the duty of the said board of police annually in the months of August and September in each succeeding year, for each election district in said city and county, to appoint as inspectors of election three persons, two of whom shall belong to and represent the political party which shall at the last preceding general election for state officers have cast the greatest number of votes in the city of New York, and the third shall belong to and represent the political party which shall at such election have cast the next greatest number of votes for said officers in said city. On or before August fifteenth in any year the chairman of the executive committee of the general committee of each of said several parties may make and file with the said board of police a list of persons qualified to be such inspectors, and thereupon appointments shall be made as hereinbefore provided from the persons named in such list or lists; and if any of the persons so named shall not be duly qualified the chairman of the committee by whom they were named may, within ten days after notice to him of the persons so disqualified, submit the names of other persons duly qualified, and if the names of qualified persons shall not be submitted as above provided, the board of police shall select and appoint qualified persons belonging to the political party entitled to name the inspectors. If either of said political parties is divided in said city into two or more factions, and lists are filed in behalf of more than one of such factions, appointments shall be made for the party so divided from the list filed in behalf of the faction which at the last preceding general election shall have cast the largest number of votes. All persons so appointed shall be citizens of the United States and of the state of New York, of good character, and able to read, write and speak the English language understandingly, qualified voters in said city and county, and not candidates for any office to be voted for by the electors of the district for which they shall be appointed, but no person shall be required to be a resident, or voter in the election district for which he shall be appointed an inspector. The persons so appointed shall be notified, examined as to their qualifications, and if approved shall each take and subscribe before the chief of the bureau of elections, or the chief clerk thereof, within twenty days from the date of notice of appointment, the following oath of office: "I, _____, residing at No. _____ in the city of New York, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the constitution of the United States and of the state of New York; and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of inspector of elections for the election district of the assembly district of the city of New York, according to the best of my ability; and that I am a citizen of the United States and of the state of New York, a qualified voter in the city and county of New York, and not a candidate for any office to be voted for by the electors of the district for which I am appointed an inspector." Whoever shall be appointed and sworn into office as an inspector of election shall receive a certificate of appointment from the board of police, said certificate to be in such form as shall be prescribed by the said board and to specify the assembly and election districts in and for which the person to whom the same is issued is appointed to serve, and the date of the expiration of his term of office. The inspectors of election appointed under the provisions of this chapter, shall hold office for one year, unless sooner removed for want of the requisite qualifications or for cause, in either of which cases such removal, unless made while the inspector is actually on duty, on a day of registration, revision of registration or election, and for improper conduct, as an election officer, shall only be made after notice in writing to the officer sought to be removed, which notice shall set forth clearly and distinctly the reasons for his removal. Provided that any inspector of election who shall at any time be appointed to fill a vacancy, which fact shall be stated in a certificate of appointment, shall hold office only during the unexpired term of his predecessor; and that no inspector of election or poll-clerk shall be transferred from one election district to another after he has entered upon the performance of his duties.

New.

§ 2. Date of general election.— A general election shall be held annually on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of November.

R. S., 411, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 2, § 4.

§ 3. Times of opening and closing polls of elections.— The polls of every general election, and, unless otherwise provided by law, of every other election, shall open, if in the city of New York, at six o'clock in the forenoon ; if in any other city or in the county of Westchester, at sunrise ; if in a town of any other county and outside of a city, between sunrise and nine o'clock in the forenoon ; and shall close, if in the city of New York, at four o'clock in the afternoon, if elsewhere, at sunset. After the polls are open, there shall be no adjournment or intermission of the election, until the polls are closed.

R. S., 411, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 2, § 5.

Id., 417, L. 1842, chap. 130, tit. 4, Art. 2, §§ 5, 6.

L. 1882, chap. 410 (N. Y. City Consolidation Act), § 1843.

§ 4. Filling vacancies in elective offices at general and special elections.— A vacancy occurring before October fifteenth in any year, in an office authorized to be filled at a general election, shall be filled at the general election held next thereafter, unless otherwise provided by the constitution, or unless previously filled at a special election, or unless a special election therefor shall have been ordered to be held on or after such fifteenth day of October and before such general election.

Upon the failure to elect to any office, except governor or lieutenant-governor, at a general or special election at which the office is authorized to be filled; or upon the death or disqualification of a person elected to office at a general or special election before the commencement of his official term; or upon the occurrence of a vacancy in any elective office, which cannot be filled by appointment for a period extending to or beyond the next general election at which a person may be elected thereto, the governor shall make proclamation of a special election to fill such office, specifying the district or county in which the election is to be held, and the day thereof, which shall be not less than twenty nor more than forty days from the date of the proclamation.

A special election shall not be held to fill a vacancy in the office of a representative in congress, unless such vacancy occur on or before the first day of July of the last year of the term of office, or unless occurring thereafter and a special session of congress be called to meet before the next general election, or be called after October fourteenth of such year; nor to fill a vacancy in the office of state senator, unless the vacancy occur before the first day of April of the last year of the term of office; nor to fill a vacancy in the office of a member of assembly, unless occurring before the first day of April in any year, unless the vacancy occur in either such office of senator or member of assembly, after such first day of April, and a special session of the legislature be called to meet between such first day of April and the next general election, or be called after October fourteenth of such year.

If a special election to fill an office shall not be held as required by law, the office shall be filled at the next general election.

R. S., 411-12, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 2, §§ 6-11.

Id., 413, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 3, Art. 2, § 6.

§ 5. Notices of elections by secretary of state.—The secretary of state shall, at least three months before each general election, make and transmit to the county clerk of each county, a notice under his hand and official seal, stating the day upon which such election shall be held, and stating each officer, except city, village and town officers, who may lawfully be voted for at such election by the electors of such county, or any part thereof.

If any such officer is to be elected to fill a vacancy, the notice shall so state. The secretary of state shall forthwith, upon the filing in his office of the governor's proclamation ordering a special election, make and transmit to each county clerk, a like notice of the officers to be voted for at such special election in such county or any part thereof, and cause such proclamation to be published in the two newspapers published in such county having the largest circulation therein, at least once a week until such election shall be held.

Each county clerk shall forthwith, upon the receipt of either such notice, file and record it in his office.

R. S., 412, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 3, Art. 2, §§ 2, 3

Id., 413, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 3, §§ 4, 5, 6.

Id., 432, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 8, § 5.

Id., 443, L. 1870, ch. 86.

§ 6. Notice of submission of proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition.—If it is provided by law that a constitutional amendment or other proposition or question shall be submitted to a popular vote at a general election, the secretary of state shall include in his notice to the county clerk, of the general election, a copy of such amendment, proposition or question, with the forms of the ballots to be voted thereon; and if more than one such amendment, proposition or question is to be voted upon at such election, the amendments and ballots shall be separately and consecutively numbered.

If such amendment, proposition or question is to be submitted at a special election, the secretary of state shall, at least twenty days before the election, make and transmit to each county clerk a like notice. Each county clerk shall, forthwith upon the receipt of either such notice, file and record it in his office.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 4.

§ 7. Publication of concurrent resolutions, proposed constitutional amendments and other propositions.—

The secretary of state shall cause each concurrent resolution of the two houses of the legislature agreeing to a proposed amendment to the constitution, which is referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election of senators, to be published once a week for three months next preceding such election, in two newspapers published in each county, representing the two political parties polling the highest number of votes at the then last preceding general election, and in one additional newspaper published in each county for every one hundred thousand people in such county, as shown by the then last preceding federal or state enumeration. Such additional newspapers shall be selected by the secretary of state with reference to making such publications in newspapers having the largest circulation in the county in which they are published.

If such resolution does not state that such proposed amendment is so referred to such legislature, the secretary of state shall publish in connection with the publication of such concurrent resolution, a statement that such amendment is referred to the legislature to be chosen at the next general election.

The secretary of state shall cause such proposed amendment to the constitution or other proposition or question, which is by law to be submitted to the electors of the state at a general or special election, to be published for the like period before such election in newspapers selected in like manner, together with a brief statement of the law or proceedings authorizing such submission, the fact that such submission will be made, and the forms of the ballots to be voted thereon.

If such proposed amendment or other proposition or question is to be submitted at a special election to be held less than three months from the time of appointing it, the first publication in each newspaper shall be made as soon as practicable after such appointment, and shall continue once in each week to the time of the election.

§ 8. Creation, division and alteration of election districts.—Every town or ward of a city not subdivided into election districts, shall be an election district.

The town board of every town containing more than four hundred voters, and the common council of every city, except New York and Brooklyn, in which there shall be a ward containing more than four hundred voters, shall, at least thirty days before the election of inspectors of election, divide such town or ward respectively into election districts, each of which shall be compact in form, wholly within the town or ward, and shall contain not more than four hundred voters. If any part of a city shall be within a town, the town board shall divide, into election districts, only that part of the town which is outside the city, and no election district including any part of a city shall include any part of a town outside of a city.

A town, or a ward of a city, containing less than four hundred voters may, at least thirty days before the election of inspectors of election of such town or ward, be divided into election districts by the town board of the town or the common council of the city, when, in the judgment of such board or council, the convenience of the voters will be promoted thereby.

The creation, division or alteration of an election district shall not take effect until the town meeting or city election occurring next thereafter, and at such town meeting or city election, inspectors of election shall be elected for such district. If the creation, alteration or division of an election district is rendered necessary by the creation or alteration of a town, or ward of a city, it shall take effect immediately. If inspectors are not elected for such district before September first next thereafter, the town board of the town or the common council of the city shall appoint three inspectors of election of such district.

No such new town or ward shall be subdivided into election districts between the first day of September and the day of the general election next after the creation of such new town or ward.

R. S., 413, 414, 416, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 3, Art. 3, §§ 8, 9, 15, 16, 17, 24.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 23.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 10.

§ 9. Maps and certificates of boundaries of election districts.— When a ward of a city, except New York and Brooklyn, shall be divided into two or more election districts, the common council of the city shall forthwith make a map or description of such division, defining it by known boundaries, and cause such map or description to be kept open for public inspection in the office of the city clerk, and cause copies thereof to be posted in at least ten of the most public places in each election district of such ward; and shall, prior to every election, furnish copies of such map and description to the inspectors of election in each election district of such ward.

The officers creating, dividing or altering an election district in a town, shall forthwith make a certificate thereof, exhibiting the districts as so created, divided or altered, and their numbers respectively, and file the same in the town clerk's office.

R. S., 413, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 3, Art. 3, § 10.

R. S., 414, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 3, § 16.

§ 10. Designation of places for registry and voting; provision of furniture therefor.—On the first Tuesday of September of each year, the town board of each town, and the common council of each city, except New York and Brooklyn, shall designate the places in each election district in the city or town, at which the meetings for the registry of voters and the elections shall be held during the year. Each room so designated shall be of a reasonable size, sufficient to admit and comfortably accommodate at least twenty electors at a time, outside of the guard rails. No building or part of a building shall be so designated in any city, if within sixty days before such designation, intoxicating liquors, ale or beer shall have been sold in any part thereof. No room shall be so designated elsewhere than in a city, if, within sixty days before such designation, intoxicating liquors, ale or beer shall have been sold in such room, or in a room adjoining thereto, with a door or other passageway between the two rooms. No intoxicating liquor, ale or beer shall be sold in such building in a city, or in such room or adjoining room elsewhere, after such designation and before the general election next thereafter, or be allowed in any room in which an election is held during the day of the election. If any place so designated shall thereafter and before the close of the election be destroyed, or for any reason become unfit for use, or can not for any reason be used for such purpose, the officers charged with the designation of a place for such election, shall forthwith designate some other suitable place for holding such election. Not more than one polling place shall be in the same room.

The officers authorized to designate such places in any town or city, shall provide for each polling place at each election, the necessary ballot and other boxes, guard rail, voting booths and supplies therein, and the other furniture of such polling place, necessary for the lawful conduct of each election thereat, shall preserve the same when not in use, and shall deliver all such ballot or other boxes for each polling place with the keys thereof to the inspectors of election of each election district at the opening of the polls of each election.

R. S. 439, L. 1880, ch. 56, §§ 12, 17.

L. 1890, ch. 321, § 3.

§ 11. Appointment of inspectors of election in cities.

Unless otherwise provided by law, the common council of each city shall appoint three inspectors of election for each election district of such city, from the voters of the district belonging to the political parties polling the highest and next to the highest number of votes at the next preceding general election. Not more than two inspectors for one district shall belong to the same political party. The term of office of each such inspector shall be one year from the time of his appointment.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 43.

§ 12. Appointment of poll clerks and ballot clerks.—

There shall be two poll clerks and two ballot clerks in each election district, who shall be voters therein, and shall be able to read and write the English language. One of such poll clerks and one of such ballot clerks shall belong to the political party polling the highest number of votes for state officers at the next preceding general election at which state officers were elected; and one poll clerk and one ballot clerk shall belong to the political party polling the next highest number of votes for such officers thereat. At the first meeting of the inspectors of election in every district in which the law provides for the election of inspectors, the inspectors elected shall appoint one of the poll clerks and one of the ballot clerks; and the inspector appointed shall appoint the other poll clerk and ballot clerk. Such appointments shall be in writing, signed by the inspectors making the appointments respectively, and shall be filed by them with the town clerk of the town, or the city clerk of the city in which such election district is situated. The poll clerks and ballot clerks so appointed shall hold their offices during the terms of office of the inspectors appointing them.

The term inspectors elected, as used in this section, shall include inspectors appointed to fill vacancies in the offices of inspectors authorized to be elected.

If the law provides for the appointment of all the inspectors of any election district, the authority appointing such inspectors shall appoint the poll clerks and ballot clerks of such district, for the same terms of office as the inspectors.

If at the time of any election at which poll clerks and ballot clerks are required to be present at the polling place in any election district, the office of a poll clerk or of a ballot clerk of such district shall be vacant, or a poll clerk or a ballot clerk of the district shall be absent, the inspectors of election of such district shall forthwith appoint a person to fill such vacancy; or designate a person to act in the place of such absent poll clerk or ballot clerk, until he shall appear. Each person so appointed or designated shall, before he acts as such poll clerk or ballot clerk, take the constitutional oath of office.

(See Form 9, post p. 474.)

§ 13. Ballot boxes.— There shall be but one ballot box at each polling place for receiving all ballots cast for candidates for office, except for commissioners of excise in towns. If proposed constitutional amendments, or other propositions or questions, may lawfully be voted upon thereat, there shall be one ballot box at each polling place for the reception of ballots upon each such amendment or proposition or question, which shall be labeled and numbered to correspond with such amendments, propositions or questions, respectively. There shall be at each polling place, as many other boxes as may be required by law to receive unvoted ballots. Each such ballot or other box shall be provided with a sufficient lock and key, and with an opening in the lid large enough and not larger than may be necessary to allow a single folded ballot to be easily passed through such opening into the box. Each such box shall be large enough to properly receive and hold all ballots which may lawfully be deposited therein at any election.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 23.

§ 14. Voting booths and guard rails.—There shall be in each polling place during each election, a sufficient number of voting booths not less than one for every fifty voters in the election district. Each such booth shall be at least three feet square, shall have four sides inclosed, each at least six feet high, and the one in front shall open and shut as a door swinging outwards and shall extend to within two feet of the floor. Each such booth shall contain a shelf which shall be one foot wide extending across one side of the booth at a convenient height for writing, and shall be furnished with such supplies and conveniences, including shelves, pens, ink, blotting paper, pencils and mucilage as will enable the voters to conveniently prepare their ballots for voting. Each booth shall be kept clearly lighted while the polls are open, by artificial lights, if necessary.

A guard rail shall be so constructed and placed at each polling place that only such persons as are inside such rail can approach within six feet of the ballot boxes, and of the booths. The arrangement of the polling place shall be such that the booths can only be reached by passing within the guard rail, and that the booths, ballot boxes, election officers, and every part of the polling places, except the inside of the booths, shall be in plain view of the election officers and of persons just outside the guard rail.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 23.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 10.

§ 15. Organization of board of inspectors; supplying vacancies and absences.—Before otherwise entering upon their duties, the inspectors of each district shall meet and appoint one of their number chairman. If at the time of any meeting of the inspectors or when any such meeting is required by law to be held, there shall be a vacancy in the office of any inspector, or if any inspector shall be absent from such meeting, the inspector or inspectors present shall appoint a qualified elector of the district to fill such vacancy or to act as inspector in the place of each absent inspector, until such absent inspector shall appear.

If at any such time, the offices of all inspectors are vacant, or no inspector shall appear within one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of such meeting, the qualified voters of the district present, not less than ten, may designate three qualified voters of the district to fill such vacancies, or to act in the place of such inspectors respectively until the absent inspectors respectively appear.

Such appointments and designations shall be made from the political parties polling the highest and next highest number of votes for state officers at the next preceding general election for such offices, and so that not more than two of such inspectors shall belong to the same political party.

Every person so appointed or designated to act as inspector shall take the oath of office required of inspectors of election.

Id., 431, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 8, §§ 3, 4.

(See Forms, 10, 11, post p. 474.)

§ 16. Preservation of order by inspectors at elections and their meetings.—All meetings of the board of inspectors shall be public. They shall have full authority to preserve peace and good order at such meetings and around the polls of an election, and to keep the access thereto open and unobstructed, and to enforce obedience to their lawful commands during their meetings. They may appoint one or more electors to communicate their orders and directions, and to assist in the performance of the duties in this section enjoined.

If any person shall refuse to obey the lawful command of the inspectors, or by disorderly conduct in their presence or hearing, shall interrupt or disturb their proceedings, they may make an order directing the sheriff or any constable of the county, to take the person so offending into custody and detain him until the final canvass of the votes shall be completed; but such order shall not prohibit the person so taken into custody from voting at such election.

Such order shall be executed by any sheriff or constable to whom the same shall be delivered; or if none shall be present, by any other person deputed by such board in writing.

R. S., 420, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 4, Art. 4, §§ 32-34.

L. 1890, ch. 321, §§ 13, 14.

§ 17. Payment of election expenses.—The expense of providing polling places, voting booths, supplies therefor, and other furniture of the polling place, and the compensation of the election officers in each election district, shall be a charge upon the town or city in which such election district is situated, except that such expenses incurred for the purpose of conducting a village election not held at the same time as a general election, shall be a charge upon the village.

The expense of printing and delivering the ballots and cards of instruction to be used at a town meeting, city or village election, not held at the same time as a general election, and of printing the lists of nominations therefor, shall be a charge upon the town, city or village in which the election is held.

The expense of printing and delivering the ballots and cards of instruction to be used in any county at any other election, if no town meeting, city or village election be held at the same time therewith, and of printing the lists of nominations therefor, shall be a charge upon such county.

The expense of printing and delivering the ballots and cards of instruction to be used in any county at any such other election, and of printing the lists of nominations therefor, if a town meeting, city or village election be held in such county at the same time therewith, shall be apportioned by the county clerk between such town, city or village, and such county, in the proportion of the number of candidates for town, city or village officers on such ballots, respectively, to the whole number of candidates thereon, and the amount of such expense so apportioned to each such municipality shall be a charge thereon. For the purposes of this section, the county of Kings includes only that portion of the county outside the city of Brooklyn. All expenses lawfully incurred by the board of elections of the city of Brooklyn shall be a charge on such city.

The county clerk of each county, not salaried, shall be paid by such county a reasonable compensation for his services in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, to be fixed by the board of supervisors of the county.

The town clerk of each town shall be paid by such town, a reasonable compensation for his services in carrying out the provisions of this chapter, to be fixed by the other members of the town board of the town.

Ballot clerks and persons acting as such, and clerks of boards of registry in cities, except New York and Brooklyn, shall receive the same compensation for their attendance at an election, or meeting for registry in pursuance of law, as inspectors of election, and be paid in like manner. An inspector of election lawfully required to file any papers in a county clerk's office shall, unless he reside in a city or town in which such office is situated, be entitled to receive as compensation therefor, four cents a mile for every mile actually and necessarily traveled between his residence and such clerk's office, in going to and returning from such office, and five dollars.

§ 18. Election districts in towns including cities.— If a town shall include a city, or portion of a city, only such election districts as are wholly outside of the city shall be deemed election districts of the town, except for the purposes of town meetings.

§ 19. Transmission of election laws to clerks and election officers.— The secretary of state shall, at least sixty days before the first general election held after this chapter takes effect, transmit to the county clerk of each county a sufficient number of copies of this chapter, as amended at the time of the preparation thereof, to furnish one such copy to the county clerk, and one to each town, village and city clerk and to each inspector of election in such county. He shall annually, within sixty days before each general election thereafter, transmit a like number of copies of the statutes amending or repealing any portion of this chapter, and of such other statutes relating to elections passed during each next preceding year, or such new compilations made by him of the statutes relating to elections, as he shall deem advisable, to the county clerk of each county.

The county clerk of each county shall forthwith transmit one of each such copies to each such officer in such county. Each copy so received by each such officer shall belong to the office of the person receiving it. Every incumbent of the office shall preserve such copy during his term of office, and upon the expiration of his term, deliver it to his successor.

Penal Code, § 711.

§ 31. Meetings of inspectors for registry.—The inspectors of election for each election district in a city, except New York and Brooklyn, shall hold four meetings for the registry of the voters thereof, at the place designated therefor, before each general election and before each annual election for city officers, on the fifth, fourth, third and second Saturdays before the election, to be known respectively, as the first, second, third and fourth meetings for registry.

The inspectors of election for each election district, elsewhere than in a city, shall hold two meetings for the registry of the voters thereof, at the place designated therefor, before each general election, on the third and second Saturdays before election, to be known respectively, as the first and second meetings for registry. Each meeting shall begin at nine o'clock in the forenoon, and continue until nine o'clock in the evening, with not more than two intermissions of one hour each.

§ 32. The register of voters.—The inspectors of each election district shall prepare at such meetings a list of the names and residences of persons qualified to vote in such district at such election, which, when finally completed, shall be the register of the voters of the district for such election. Such lists shall be arranged in three columns. In the first column shall be placed the surnames of such persons in the alphabetical order of the first letter thereof; in the second column the Christian names of such persons respectively; in the third column the residences of such persons respectively, by street and number, if any, and otherwise a brief description of the locality thereof. At each meeting except the last, a space shall be left after each set of surnames commencing with the same letter, sufficient for the addition thereto at subsequent meetings, of surnames commencing with the same letter. Before any such surnames added at any such subsequent meeting, there shall be written, "Added at second meeting," or, "Added at third meeting," or, "Added at fourth meeting," as the case may be. In cities the names of such persons only, as personally appear before the inspectors and are qualified voters, shall be placed on such list at a meeting for registry for a general election, or an annual city election of city officers.

At the first meeting in a city for registry for a special election, the inspectors shall place upon such list the names of all persons qualified to vote at such election in such district which appear upon the register of voters for the last preceding general election in such election district, except the names of such voters as are proven to the satisfaction of the inspectors to have ceased to be voters of such district since their names were placed on such register; and shall at the first and second meetings for such special election, place upon such list the names of all persons so qualified, who shall personally appear before the board at either such meeting; but no new names, not on such register shall be placed on such list, except of persons who so personally appear.

The inspectors shall, at their first meeting for registry in an election district elsewhere than in a city, place upon such list the names of all persons appearing on the poll-list of the next preceding general election in such district, except the names of such voters as are proven to the satisfaction of such inspectors to have ceased to be voters since such general election; the names of all other persons known or proven to the satisfaction of the inspectors to be so qualified; and the names of all persons so qualified who personally appear before the inspectors and request to have their names placed thereon. At their second and final meeting for registry, the names of such persons only as personally appear and are qualified shall be placed on the list.

Elsewhere than in cities the register of voters for a special election shall be the register of voters of the then last preceding general election in the district.

A person is a qualified voter in any election district for the purpose of having his name placed on such list, if he is at the time qualified to vote at the election for which such registry is made, or may become so qualified on or before the day upon which such election is to be held.

L. 1890, ch. 321, §§ 4, 5, 20.

§ 33. Certificates to lists; copies; custody thereof.—At the close of each meeting for the registry of voters in a city, except New York and Brooklyn, for a general election, or for an annual city election for city officers, the inspectors shall append to the list of voters their certificate to the effect that such list as it then is, is a true and correct list of all persons qualified to vote at such election in such district, who have personally appeared before the board and have requested to have their names placed thereon.

At the close of each meeting for the registry of voters elsewhere than in a city for a general election, or in a city for a special election, the inspectors shall append to such list, as it then is, a certificate to the effect that such list as it then is, is a true and correct list of all persons qualified to vote at the next election in such district whose names the board is required by law to place thereon.

Each such list so certified, shall remain in the custody of the chairman of the inspectors, until the close of the polls on election day. At each meeting of the inspectors for registry, or during the next following secular day, the inspectors shall make three certified copies of such list and certificate, one of which shall forthwith be conspicuously posted in the place where such meeting shall have been held, and one shall be retained by each of the other two inspectors, until the close of the polls of such next election. Such list and registry of voters, and the certified copies thereof, shall at all reasonable hours be accessible to the public for examination or for making copies thereof.

L. 1890, ch. 321, §§ 6, 13.

§ 34. Delivery of previous poll-lists and registers to inspectors.— Each clerk with whom the poll-list of the last preceding general election in any election district elsewhere than in a city, shall have been filed, shall cause one of such poll-lists to be delivered to the board of inspectors of such district at the opening of its first meeting for registry for any election; and any such clerk within a city, except New York and Brooklyn, shall cause the register of voters on file in his office to be delivered to the board of inspectors of each election district in such city at the opening of its first meeting for registry for a special election.

If a new election district shall have been formed in a town since such general election, the clerk of such town shall, before the first meeting for registry thereafter in such new election district, make a certified copy of each poll-list for such general election of each election district out of which such new district shall have been formed, and shall cause such certified copies to be delivered to the board of inspectors of such new election district at the opening of such meeting for registry. Such board at such meeting shall place upon the list of voters all persons whose names are upon such copies who are qualified to vote in such election district at the election for which such meeting is held.

If a new election district shall have been formed in a city, except New York or Brooklyn, since such general election, the clerk with whom the registers of voters for such previous general election shall have been filed, shall, before the first meeting of the inspectors of such new district for registry for a special election, make a certified copy of each register of voters for such previous general election of each election district out of which such new election district is formed, and the inspectors of such new election district shall at such first meeting for registry for such special election place upon the list of voters the names of all persons upon such copies who are qualified to vote in such election district at the special election for which such meeting is held.

L. 1890, ch. 321, § 7.

§ 35. Challenges to applicants for registry.— Any person who appears personally at any meeting of the board of inspectors for registry for any election and applies to have his name placed on the list of voters, may be challenged by any qualified elector of such district. If such applicant be so challenged, or if any member of the board shall have reason to suspect that such applicant is not entitled to registry, the board shall administer to such applicant the oath which is required by law to be administered to a challenged person offering to vote at a general election, and may thereupon examine him as to his qualifications as an elector, and may require him to state, under oath, his age, residence by street and number, if it have a street number, and otherwise to describe the locality thereof, and if he is not a householder, to state the name of the householder with whom he resides, and in like manner to describe the residence of such householder. If the applicant shall make such statement, and shall make oath to the circumstances which qualify him to vote at such election in such district, his name shall be added to such list of voters. If he shall refuse to make either such oath or statement, his name shall not be placed on such list.

§ 36. Registry of Challenges.— If, at a meeting of a board of inspectors for registry, any elector of the district shall, upon oath, declare that he has reason to believe that any person on such list of voters will not be qualified to vote at such election, the board of inspectors shall place the words, "to be challenged," opposite the name of such person, and when such person shall offer his vote at such election, the general oath as to qualifications shall be administered to him, and if he shall refuse to take such oath, he shall not be permitted to vote.

L. 1890, ch. 321, §§ 9, 16.

§ 37. Addition and cancellation of names on registry lists.— The board shall, at any such meeting, erase from such list of voters the name of any person thereon who is proven to the satisfaction of the board to be not qualified to vote in such district at such election, or who can not be so qualified at the time of such election. If the board shall, at any meeting, upon sufficient evidence being presented to it, refuse to strike from such list of voters the name of any person not so qualified to vote, or shall neglect or refuse to place upon such list the name of any person who is entitled to have his name placed thereon, application may be made to any justice of the supreme court of the judicial district in which such election district is, or to any justice of the supreme court residing in a county adjoining such judicial district, or to a county judge of the county, or to any judge of a court of record of a city in which such election district is, and such justice or judge may, upon sufficient evidence, and upon such notice, of not less than twenty-four hours, to the board of inspectors and such other persons interested, of such application, as the justice or judge may require, order such name to be stricken from or added to such list or register of voters, as the case may be, and such list shall be corrected accordingly.

§ 38. Registry as condition of voting.— At the opening of the polls in each election district for every general election, special election, or election of city officers, the board of inspectors of election thereof shall then and there have the original register of voters of such district for such election, and the two certified copies thereof retained by the members of the board of inspectors, and no person shall vote at such election in such district, unless his name is on such register. The right of any person to vote whose name is on such register shall be subject to challenge the same as though he was not required to be registered. Elsewhere than in cities, a person who shall have become a qualified voter of the district since the last preceding general election, may vote at a special election upon making proof to the inspectors that he has become a qualified voter of the district since such general election.

L. 1890, ch. 321, § 10.

§ 39. Clerks.— Any board of inspectors in a city, except New York and Brooklyn, may appoint one clerk to assist in the performance of the clerical duties of such board in registering, for not more than four days. Such clerk shall take the constitutional oath of office before he enters upon the performance of his duties.

L. 1890, ch. 321, § 17.

L. 1891, ch. 336, § 3.

§ 40. Delivery of blank registry books to election officers.—The secretary of state shall cause to be prepared a sufficient number of suitable blank books for lists and registers of voters, with blank certificates and brief instructions for registry therein, for use by the inspectors in preparing lists and registers of voters in pursuance of this article, and shall transmit to the county clerk of each county a sufficient number of such blank-books, certificates and instructions, to furnish four to each board of inspectors in such county, except in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, and each county clerk shall cause the same to be distributed accordingly, within ten days after the receipt thereof.

L. 1890, ch. 321, § 22.

§ 41. Meetings for registry on Saturday half-holidays.—No Saturday shall be deemed a holiday, nor shall any Saturday afternoon be deemed a half-holiday so as to affect any meeting or proceeding of the board of inspectors for registry.

Sec. 65. Objections to nomination certificates, and determinations thereof.

66. Filling vacancies in nominations.

§ 50. Definitions of primary and convention.—As used in this article, a convention is an assemblage of delegates representing a political party, duly convened for the purpose of nominating candidates for office, electing delegates to conventions, electing officers for party organizations, or for the transaction of any other business relating to the affairs or conduct of the party; and a primary is any other assemblage of voters of a political party, duly convened for any such purpose.

R. S., 458, L. 1882, ch. 154, § 5.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 2.

§ 51. Notice of primary.—No primary shall be held in a city or village having a population of over five thousand, as shown by the then last state or federal enumeration, unless at least two days notice thereof shall be published in a daily newspaper in such city or village, of the same politics with the party giving the notice, at least twice; but if no such newspaper is published in the same city or village where such primary is to be held, such notice shall be posted in at least six public places in such city or village at least two days next preceding such primary, and published in a weekly newspaper if any, in such city or village of the same politics of the party giving the notice, before such primary is held. Such primary shall be opened at such hour between nine o'clock in the forenoon and nine o'clock in the afternoon, as may be prescribed by the party organization or association holding the same.

Elsewhere than in such a city or village, every primary shall be called and held pursuant to notice given according to the regulations and usages of the party organization holding it.

R. S., 460, L. 1887, ch. 265, § 2.

Id., 463, L. 1887, ch. 265, § 25.

§ 52. Organization and conduct of primaries.— Every primary shall be organized by the appointment of a chairman and secretary.

If the rules and regulations of the political organization calling it so require; or if it shall by a vote of the voters present so resolve; or if it be in a city or village having a population of over five thousand according to the then last preceding federal or state enumeration and five qualified voters of the district where it is held belonging to the political party calling it shall serve upon the secretary or general committee of the party or its organization in such city or village, or upon the chairman of the district committee, a written demand stating that they so require it; the following additional requirements, or such of them as may be specified in such demand, shall be complied with:

1. The chairman and other officers shall take the constitutional oath of office.

2. Candidates, delegates and officers of the organization shall be chosen by ballot.

3. The meeting shall be held open not less than one hour for voting thereat.

4. Two tellers shall be appointed, who shall keep a poll-list of the name and residence of each person voting, and assist the secretary in the canvass of the votes.

5. An elector shall be appointed watcher for each candidate or number of candidates, requesting and naming the same.

6. The chairman shall publicly announce the number of votes cast for each candidate, and the result of the canvass at the completion thereof, and shall, if the primary be held in a city or village having a population of more than five thousand as shown by the then last preceding federal or state enumeration, file a statement of such result and the oath taken at such primary and the poll-list kept thereat in the office of the county clerk if located in such city or village and otherwise in the office of the city or village clerk; and the papers so filed shall be public records, and open to inspection and examination by any elector of the state.

R. S., 460-61-62-63, L. 1887, ch. 265, §§ 1, 3, 4, 6, 16, 25.

§ 53. Qualifications of voters at primaries.—No person shall be entitled to vote at any primary unless he may be qualified to vote for the officers to be nominated thereat, on the day of election. They shall possess such other qualifications as shall be authorized by the regulations and usages of the party holding the primary.

R. S., 458, L. 1882, ch. 154, § 6.

Id., 463, L. 1887, ch. 265, § 22.

§ 54. Duties of chairman of primary.—The chairman may administer any oath required to be administered at any primary. He shall decide all questions that arise relating to the qualification of voters; and shall reject all votes offered when challenged by an elector, unless the person offering the vote shall be sworn that he will truly answer all questions put to him touching his qualifications as such voter, and shall state under oath that he is qualified to vote at such primary.

R. S., 458, L. 1882, ch. 154, § 2.

Id., 459, L. 1882, ch. 366, § 1.

Id., 462, L. 1887, ch. 265, § 14.

§ 55. Watchers and canvass of votes at primaries.—The ballot-boxes used at any primary shall be examined by the secretary and by the tellers, if any, in the presence of the watchers, if any, before any ballots are received, to see that there are no ballots therein. Such watchers are entitled to be present from the commencement of the primary to the close of the canvass, and signing of the certificates thereof. At the close of the canvass of the ballots cast for each candidate, the secretary shall publicly announce the vote and the result of the canvass.

R. S., 461, L. 1887, ch. 265, §§ 5, 7, 8.

Id., 462, L. 1887, ch. 265, § 15.

§ 56. Party nominations.—Nominations of candidates for public office, made by a primary or convention held therefor or by a duly authorized committee appointed by such primary or convention, shall be known as party nominations.

A certificate of such nominations shall be made, containing the name of the office for which each person is nominated, the name and residence of each such person, if in a city, the street, number of residence, and place of business, if any; and shall designate in not more than five words the party which such primary, convention or committee represents, and shall be signed by the chairman and secretary of the primary, convention or committee, who shall add to their names their respective places of residence, and their affidavit that they were such officers.

R. S., 462, L. 1887, ch. 265, § 11.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 2, 3.

L. 1891, ch. 296, §§ 1, 2.

(See Forms 1, 2, 4, 5, post pp. 467-8, 470-1.)

§ 57. Independent nominations.—Three thousand or more voters of the state may nominate candidates for offices to be filled by voters of the entire state; five hundred or more voters of a county or city or of a portion of the state greater than a county, except an assembly district composed of more than one county, may nominate candidates for offices to be filled by the voters of such county, city or portion of the state; two hundred and fifty or more voters of an assembly or school commissioner district, may nominate candidates for offices to be filled by the voters of such district; twenty-five or more voters of a ward, town or village may nominate candidates for offices to be filled by the voters of such town, ward or village.

If the nomination is for an office to be filled by the voters of the city and county of New York, the county of Kings, or the city of Brooklyn, not less than six hundred voters shall make such nomination. If the nomination is for an office to be filled wholly or in part by the voters of only a portion of either the city and county of New York, the county of Kings, or the city of Brooklyn, not less than two hundred and fifty voters shall make such nomination.

The nominations shall be made by a certificate signed and acknowledged by such voters, each of whom shall add to his signature his place of residence, and make oath that he is such voter and has truly stated his residence. The certificate shall contain the names of the offices to be filled, the name and residence of each candidate nominated, and if in a city, the street number of such residence and of his place of business if any; and shall designate, in not more than five words, the political or other name which the signers shall select, but the name of any organized political party shall not be used without using in connection therewith some other word or words to distinguish such name from such party name, and no word or designation shall be used indicating that the name is that of any regular party or political organization.

The certificate may designate upon the face thereof one or more persons, as authorized to nominate candidates for the offices named therein, for which no candidates are nominated in such certificate. The persons so designated may by certificates signed and duly acknowledged by them, specifying the political or other name used in the certificate in which such vacancies exist, nominate candidates to fill such vacancies. The signatures to the certificate of nomination need not all be appended to one paper. No person shall sign more than one certificate, and no certificate shall contain the names of more candidates for any office than there are persons to be elected to such office. Such nominations shall be known as independent nominations.

§ 58. Places of filing certificates of nominations.— Certificates of nomination of candidates for offices to be filled by the voters of the entire state, or of any division or district greater than a county, shall be filed with the secretary of state, except that each certificate of nomination of a candidate for member of assembly for the assembly district composing the counties of Fulton and Hamilton, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of Fulton county, and a copy thereof certified by the county clerk of Fulton county shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of Hamilton county, and each certificate of nomination of a candidate for senator for the fifth senatorial district shall be filed in the office of the board of police commissioners of the city of New York, and a copy thereof, certified by such board, shall be filed in the office of the county clerk of Richmond county.

Certificates of nomination of candidates for offices to be filled by only the voters or a portion of the voters of the city of New York or Brooklyn, shall be filed with the board of police commissioners of the city of New York or the board of elections of the city of Brooklyn, respectively,

Certificates of nomination of candidates for officers of any other city, or for officers of a village or town, to be elected at a different time from a general election, shall be filed with the clerk of such city, village or town respectively.

All other certificates of nomination shall be filed with the clerk of the county in which the candidates so nominated are to be voted for.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 4, 5, 7, 38.

L. 1891, ch. 296.

§ 59. The times of filing certificates of nomination.—
The different certificates of nominations shall be filed within the following periods before the election for which the nominations are made, to wit: those required to be filed with the secretary of state, if party nominations, at least twenty-five and not more than forty days; if independent nominations, at least twenty and not more than forty days; those required to be filed with a county clerk or the board of police commissioners of the city of New York, or the board of elections of the city of Brooklyn, if party nominations, at least twenty and not more than thirty days; if independent nominations, at least fifteen and not more than thirty days; those required to be filed with the city clerk of any other city, if party nominations, at least ten and not more than twenty days; if independent nominations, at least eight and not more than twenty days; those required to be filed with a town or village clerk, if party nominations, at least six and not more than twenty days; if independent nominations, at least five and not more than twenty days.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 8, 38.

L. 1891, ch. 296.

§ 60. Certification of nominations by the secretary of state.—The secretary of state shall, immediately upon the expiration of the time within which certificates of nomination may be filed with him, certify to the county clerk of each county, except New York, to the board of police commissioners of the city of New York and to the board of elections of the city of Brooklyn, the name, residence and place of business, if any, of each candidate nominated in any certificate so filed, for whom the voters of such county or city, respectively, may vote.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 9.

§ 61. Publication of nominations.—At least six days before an election to fill any public office, the county clerk of each county, except New York, the board of police commissioners of the city of New York, and the board of elections of the city of Brooklyn, shall cause to be published in not less than two nor more than four newspapers within such county or city respectively, a list of all nominations of candidates for offices to be filled at such election, certified to such clerk or board by the secretary of state, or filed in the office of such clerk or board. Such publication shall contain the name and residence, and if in a city, the street number of the residence, and place of business, if any, and the party or other designation of each candidate.

The city clerk of each city, except New York and Brooklyn, shall at least six days before an election of city officers thereof, held at a different time from a general election, cause like publication to be made as to candidates for offices to be filled at such city election, in at least two newspapers published in such city. One of such publications shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that at the last preceding election cast the largest number of votes in the state; and another of such publications shall be made in a newspaper which advocates the principles of the political party that at the last preceding election cast the next largest number of votes in the state. The clerk or board, in selecting the respective papers for such publication, shall select those which, according to the best information he can obtain, have the largest circulation within such county or city. In making additional publications the clerk or board shall keep in view the object of giving information, so far as possible, to the voters of all political parties; and in no event shall additional publications be made in two newspapers representing the same political party.

The clerk or board shall make such publication twice in each newspaper so selected in a county or city in which daily newspapers are published; but if there be no daily newspaper published within the county, one publication only shall be made in each of such newspapers. Should the county clerk find it impracticable to make the publication six days before election day, in counties where no daily newspaper is printed, he shall make the same at the earliest possible day thereafter, and before the election.

§ 62. Posting town and village nominations.— Each town and village clerk shall cause at least ten copies of a like list of all nominations to office filed with him to be conspicuously posted in ten public places in the town or village, at least one day before the town meeting or village election, one of which copies shall be so posted at each polling place of such town meeting or village election.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 38.

§ 63. Lists for town clerks and aldermen.— The county clerk of each county, except New York, shall, at least six days before election day, send to the town clerk of each town, and to an alderman of each ward in any city in the county, except Brooklyn, at least five and not more than ten printed lists for each election district in such town or ward, containing the name and residence, and if in a city, the street number of residence, and place of business, if any, and party or other designation of each candidate nominated to be voted for by the voters of the respective towns and wards. Such lists shall, at least three days before the day of election, be conspicuously posted by such town clerk or alderman in one or more public places in each election district of each town or ward, one of which shall be at each polling place.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 11.

§ 64. Declination of nomination.— The name of a person nominated for a town or village office, shall not be printed on the official ballots, if he shall before the ballots are printed, give written notice that he declines such nomination to the town or village clerk. The name of a person nominated for any other office shall not be printed on the official ballots if he notifies the officer with whom the original certificate of his nomination is filed, in a writing signed by him and duly acknowledged, that he declines the nomination. If a party nomination, such notification shall be given at least twelve days, and if an independent nomination at least ten days before the election. The officer to whom such notification is given shall forthwith inform, by mail or otherwise, one or more persons whose names are attached to the original certificates of nomination, that such nomination has been declined.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 12, 38.

§ 65. Objections to nomination certificates and determination thereof.—A certificate of nomination which is in apparent conformity with the provisions of this article shall be valid, unless written objection thereto shall be filed in the office in which the certificate is filed within three days after the filing of the certificate. If such objection be filed, notice thereof shall be forthwith mailed to all candidates who may be affected thereby, addressed to them at their respective places of residence, as given in the certificate.

The officer with whom the certificate is filed, shall, in the first instance, pass upon the validity of such objection, and his decision shall be final, unless an order shall be made in the matter by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a justice of the supreme court at chambers, on or before the Wednesday preceding the election. Such order may be made summarily upon application of any party interested, and upon such notice of not less than twenty-four hours, as the court or judge may require.

§ 66. Filling vacancies in nominations.—If a nomination is duly declined or a nominee dies before election day, or if any certificate of nomination is insufficient or inoperative, any vacancy thus occasioned, may be filled in the manner required for original nominations, or, if it be an independent nomination, in the manner required for filling vacancies in the original certificate. If it be a party nomination and the primary or convention making it has delegated to a committee the power to fill vacancies, such committee may fill the same.

The chairman and secretary of such committee shall thereupon make and file with the proper officer a certificate setting forth the cause of the vacancy, the name of the new nominee, the office for which he is nominated, the name of the original nominee, the fact that the committee was authorized to fill vacancies, and such further information as is required to be given in an original certificate of nomination. The certificate so made shall be executed and sworn to in the manner prescribed for the original certificate of nomination, and shall be filed in the office in which the original certificate is filed, at least two days before the election, if filed in the office of a town or village clerk, and at least eight days before the election if filed elsewhere, and upon being so filed shall have the same force and effect as an original certificate of nomination. When such certificate shall be filed with the secretary of state he shall, in certifying the nomination to the various county clerks, and city boards, insert the name of the person who has thus been nominated to fill a vacancy in place of that of the original nominee; or if he has already sent forward his certificate, he shall forthwith certify to the proper clerks and boards the name and description of the person so nominated to fill a vacancy, the office he is nominated for, together with the other details mentioned in the certificate of nomination so filed with the secretary of state, and the name of the person for whom such nominee is substituted.

ARTICLE IV.

PREPARATION OF OFFICIAL BALLOTS, SAMPLE BALLOTS AND INSTRUCTION CARDS; DISTRIBUTION THEREOF TO POLLING PLACES.

SECTION 80. Elections for which official ballots shall be provided.

81. Form of official ballots for candidates for office.

82. Names of offices and candidates on official ballots.

83. Form of official ballots for constitutional amendments or other proposition.

SECTION 84. Sample ballots and instruction cards.

- 85. Number of official ballots for each polling place.
- 86. Designation of officers to provide ballots and instruction cards.
- 87. Distribution of ballots and instruction cards to polling places.
- 88. Correction of errors and omissions in ballots.
- 89. Official distribution to polling places of substitutes for missing official ballots.

§ 80. Elections for which official ballots shall be provided.—Official ballots shall be provided at public expense at each polling place for every election at which public officers are to be elected directly by the people, except an election of school district officers or school officers of a city or village at which no other public officer is to be elected.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 1.

§ 81. Form of official ballots for candidates for office.—Each official ballot for candidates for public office shall be six inches wide; shall have a perforated line running across it, parallel with and one inch distant from the top thereof; and shall be of such length that below such perforated line there shall be one-fourth of an inch in the length of the ballot for the name of each office and the same space for the name of each candidate to be printed thereon. The space above the perforated line shall be known as the stub.

The stubs of such ballots of each kind, for each election district, shall be numbered consecutively, by printed numbers on the backs thereof, and nothing else shall be printed on the backs of the stubs. On the face of each stub shall be printed in uniform type the words "official ballots for," and after the word "for" shall follow the designation of the polling place for which the ballot is prepared.

On the back of each official ballot below the stub shall be printed in great primer Roman condensed capitals, the indorsement "official ballot for _____," and after the word "for" shall follow the date of the election and a fac simile of the signature of the officer, or clerk of the board providing the ballots, except that ballots containing the names of candidates for commissioners of excise of towns, shall be indorsed "excise," only, and other ballots for town meetings, not held at the same time with a general election, shall be indorsed "town" only.

Each official ballot shall be of such form, and so printed, that when the ballot is properly folded for voting, the whole of the indorsement and the printed number on the back of the stub shall be visible, and so that the stub can be removed without unfolding the ballot, or exposing or removing any portion of the face thereof below the perforated line. All official ballots prepared by the same officer or board for the same election district and the same election, containing the names of the same offices, shall be of precisely the same quality and tint of paper, kind of type and quality and tint of plain black ink, and of uniform length.

L. 1891, ch. 296, §§ 4, 5, 6.

§ 82. Names of offices and candidates on official ballots.—There shall be as many different kinds of official ballots for candidates for public office at each polling place, at which official ballots are required to be provided as there are different political parties or political or other names represented upon duly filed certificates of nomination of candidates to be voted for thereat. The names of all the offices to be filled thereat shall be printed below the perforated line, upon the face of each such ballot of each kind, in brevier lower case type within the spaces respectively allowed therefor. Under the name of each office thereon, the name of each candidate nominated therefor by or by virtue of the kind of certificates to which such kind of ballot corresponds, shall be printed in brevier capitals, within the spaces respectively allowed therefor. The names on each ballot shall be in a single column except that the names of candidates for presidential electors, and the names of inspectors of election, if ten or more, shall be in two columns. No ballot shall contain the names of more candidates for one office than may be voted for at such election by one voter.

If the full number of candidates for the offices specified on any one kind of ballots shall not have been nominated by or in pursuance of the certificates from which such kind of ballots is prepared, blank spaces shall be left on each ballot of such kind where the names of candidates would appear, except for such failure to nominate. The name of a person having a party nomination shall not be placed upon an official ballot of independent nomination, if such person shall have given notice at least fifteen days before the election for which the ballot is prepared, to the officer with whom his party certificate of nomination is filed, by a writing signed and acknowledged by him, that he does not wish his name placed upon any ballot of independent nomination, or upon such particular ballot of independent nomination.

The names of offices to be filled and of candidates to be voted for by the voters of a particular district or municipality only, shall not be printed on any other ballots than those prepared for such district or municipality.

If two or more officers are to be elected to the same office for different terms, the term for which each is nominated shall be designated on the ballot as a part of the name of the office.

If at a general election, in any congressional district, one Congressman is to be elected for a full term, and another to fill a vacancy, the ballots containing the names of the two candidates therefor shall designate the congress for which each is nominated.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 6.

§ 83. Form of official ballot for constitutional amendments or other propositions.—Each official ballot upon a proposed constitutional amendment, or other proposition or question, shall comply with the requirements for official ballots for candidates for public office, except that there shall be plainly and clearly printed on the face thereof, below the perforated line, upon each of one kind of such official ballots the proper language for designating a vote for, and upon each of the other kind of such ballots the proper language for designating a vote against such amendment, proposition or question. Each such ballot shall be of the same length, and the only indorsement on the back shall appropriately indicate the proposed amendment or other proposition or question to which the ballot relates, but without any indication on the back of the ballot of whether it is for or against the amendment, proposition or question.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 15.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 5.

§ 84. Sample ballots and instruction cards.—Twelve sample ballots of each kind shall also be provided for every polling place for which official ballots are required to be provided. Such sample ballots shall be printed on paper of a different color from the official ballots and without numbers on the stubs, but shall not otherwise differ from the official ballots.

Twelve instruction cards printed in English, and twelve printed in each of such other languages as the officer or officers charged with providing them shall deem necessary, shall be provided for each such polling place, containing, in clear, large type, full instructions for the guidance of voters in obtaining ballots for voting, in preparing their ballots for deposit in the boxes, in returning their ballots to the ballot clerks, and in obtaining new ballots in place of those returned, and a copy of each of the sections of the penal code relating to crimes against the elective franchise.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 13, 30.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 5.

§ 85. Number of official ballots for each polling place.—The number of official ballots of each kind to be provided for each polling place for each election to be held thereat, except a town meeting or a village election held at a different time from a general election, shall be twice the number of the names of voters upon the register of voters of such district for such election at the close of the last meeting for such registry. The number of official ballots of each kind to be provided for each polling place of a town meeting or village election held at a different time from a general election, shall be at least twice the number of persons who will be entitled to vote thereat, as nearly as can be estimated by the officer charged with the duty of providing such ballots.

L. 1890 ch. 262, §§ 16, 18.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 4.

§ 86. Designation of officers to provide ballots and instruction cards.—The county clerk of each county except New York shall provide the requisite number of printed official ballots, sample ballots and instruction cards for each polling place in the county, for each election to be held thereat, except town meetings and city and village elections, and elections of school officers not held at the same time as a general election, and except that the county clerk of the county of Kings shall provide such ballots for only such election districts of such county as are outside the city of Brooklyn.

The board of police commissioners of the city of New York, and the board of elections of the city of Brooklyn shall provide the requisite number of such ballots and instruction cards for each polling place, in each such city, respectively, for each election to be held thereat.

If a city or village election or a town meeting, for the election of public officers, shall be held upon a different day from a general election, the clerk of such city, village or town, respectively, shall provide the requisite number of such ballots and cards of instruction for each polling place of such election or town meeting.

Each officer or board charged with providing official ballots for any polling place, shall have the official ballots and sample ballots provided and in the possession of such officer, board or clerk thereof, and open to public inspection as follows: the official ballots four days before the election, and the sample ballots seven days before the election for which they are prepared, unless prepared for a village election or town meeting held at a different time from a general election, in which cases the official ballots shall be so printed and in possession at least one day and the sample ballots at least two days before such election or town meeting.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 16, 37, 38, 41.

L. 1891, ch. 296, §§ 5, 8.

§ 87. Distribution of ballots and instruction cards to polling places.—The county clerk of each county charged with providing official ballots, shall on the Saturday before the election at which they may be voted, deliver to the clerk of each town and to the city clerk of each city in such county the official ballots, sample ballots and instruction cards required to be provided for each polling place in such town or city election. Each kind of official ballots, all the sample ballots and all the instruction cards for each election district shall be so delivered, in separate sealed packages. The official ballots in each package shall be unfolded and arranged in the order of the printed numbers on the stubs thereof. Each such package shall be clearly marked on the outside thereof with the number and kind of ballots or instruction cards inclosed therein respectively, and the designation of the election district for which it is provided.

Receipts for the packages so delivered, specifying the number and kind of packages, shall be given by each town and city clerk receiving them, and filed with such county clerk who shall keep a record of the time and manner of the delivery thereof.

Each town and city clerk receiving such packages shall cause all such packages so received and marked for any election district to be delivered unopened and with the seals thereof unbroken to the inspectors of election of such election district, at the opening of the polls of such election therein, and cause a receipt to be then taken from such inspectors for such packages, specifying the number and kind thereof, which receipt shall be filed in the office of such clerk.

Town, city and village clerks required to provide ballots for town meetings, city and village elections held at different times from a general election, and the boards of the cities of New York and Brooklyn required to provide the ballots for elections held therein, respectively, shall in like manner, deliver to the inspectors or presiding officers of the election at each polling place at which such meetings and elections are held, respectively, the official ballots, sample ballots and instruction cards required to be provided therefor, respectively, in like sealed packages marked on the outside in like manner, and shall take and file receipts therefor in like manner, in their respective offices.

§ 88. Correction of errors and omissions in ballots.— Upon affidavit, presented by any voter, that an error or omission has occurred in the publication of the names or description of the candidates nominated for office, or in the printing of the sample or official ballots, the supreme court, or a justice thereof, may make an order, requiring the county clerk, or other officer or board charged with the duty in respect to which such error or omission occurs, to correct such error, or show cause why such error should not be corrected. The county clerks or such other officers or boards, shall, upon their own motion, correct without delay, any patent error in the ballots which they may discover, or which shall be brought to their attention, and which can be corrected without interfering with the timely distribution of the ballots to the inspectors of election in the election districts.

§ 89. Official distribution to polling places of substitutes for missing official ballots.— If the official ballots required to be furnished to any town or city clerk, shall not be delivered at the time required, or if after delivery shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, the clerk of such town or city shall cause other ballots to be prepared as nearly in the form of the official ballots as practicable, but without the indorsement, and upon the receipt of ballots so prepared from such clerk, accompanied by his statement under oath that the same have been so prepared and furnished by him, and that the official ballots have not been so delivered, or have been so lost, destroyed or stolen, the inspectors of election shall cause the ballots so substituted to be used at the election, in the same manner as near as may be as the official ballots. Such ballots so substituted shall be known as unofficial ballots.

§ 100. Opening the polls.—The inspectors of election, poll clerks and ballot clerks of each election district, shall meet at the time duly appointed for opening the polls of each election for which official ballots are required to be provided, at the polling place therein, within the space inclosed by the guard-rail, for the purpose of conducting such election. Within the meaning of this article, the territory in which the voters, entitled to vote at any such polling place reside, shall be deemed an election district; the presiding officers of such election at such polling place shall be deemed inspectors of election of such district, and any inspector or other officer duly designated to distribute official ballots to voters thereof shall be deemed a ballot clerk thereof.

The inspectors of election shall then and there have the ballot-boxes required by law for the reception of ballots to be voted thereat; the box required for the reception of unvoted ballots; the sealed packages of official ballots, sample ballots and instruction cards required to be delivered to them for such election; and if it be an election at which registered voters only can vote, the register of such voters, and the certified copies thereof, required to be made and kept therefor.

Each such poll clerk shall then and there have the book required for keeping the poll list of such election.

The inspectors shall thereupon open the sealed packages of instruction cards, and cause them to be posted conspicuously, at least one, and if printed in different languages, at least one of each language, in each of the voting booths of such polling place, and at least three of each language in which they are printed in or about the polling place; shall open the sealed packages of official ballots and sample ballots and place them in charge of the ballot clerks; and shall before any ballots are cast, unlock the ballot-boxes and the box for the reception of unvoted ballots, see that they are empty, allow the watchers present to examine them, and lock them up again while empty, in such manner that the watchers present and persons just outside the guard-rail can see that such boxes are empty when they are relocked.

The instruction cards, so posted, shall not be taken down, torn or defaced during such election.

The ballot clerks with the official and sample ballots, the inspectors with such boxes and registry lists, and the poll clerks with their poll-list books, shall be stationed as near each other as practicable within such inclosed space,

One of the inspectors shall then make proclamation that the polls of the election are opened, and of the time o'clock in the afternoon when the polls will be closed.

1890, ch. 262, §§ 20, 23, 30

§ 101. Persons inside the guard-rail — General regulations.— From the time of such meeting for the purpose of conducting such election, until the announcement of the result of the canvass of the votes cast thereat and the signing of the certificate thereof by the inspectors, such boxes and all the official ballots shall be kept within the guard-rail.

No person shall be admitted within the guard-rail during such period, except such inspectors, poll clerks, ballot clerks, duly authorized watchers, persons admitted by the inspectors to preserve order or enforce the law, persons duly admitted for the purpose of voting, and persons duly admitted to assist disabled voters, and in the city of Brooklyn the members of the board of canvassers, and in the city of New York persons lawfully designated by candidates to be present at the canvass of the votes.

After such boxes are so relocked, while empty at the opening of the polls, they shall not be unlocked or opened until the closing of the polls of such election, and, except as authorized by law, no ballots or other matter shall be placed in them after they are so relocked and before the announcement of the result of such canvass and the signing of such certificate.

No person shall deliver to any voter within such guard-rail a paster, paster ballot or any other ballot than such as the ballot clerks are lawfully authorized to deliver to a voter.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 23.

L. 1891, ch. 236. (Brooklyn charter.) Title XX, § 15.

§ 102. Watchers; challengers; electioneering.— Each political party duly filing certificates of nomination of candidates for offices to be filled at any such election, may, by writing signed by the committee or other similar representative of such organization or by the chairman thereof, and delivered to one of the inspectors of election, appoint not more than two watchers to attend each polling place thereof. No such committee or representative for a town or ward shall appoint watchers for any polling place outside such town or ward. Such watchers may be present at such polling place, and within the guard-rail, from at least fifteen minutes before the unlocking and examination of any ballot-box at the opening of the polls of such election, until after the announcement of the result of the canvass of the votes cast thereat and the signing of the certificate thereof by the inspectors.

A reasonable number of challengers, at least one person of each such party, shall be permitted to remain just outside the guard-rail of each such polling place, and where they can plainly see what is done within such rail outside the voting booths, from the opening to the close of the polls thereat.

No person shall, while the polls are open at any polling place, do any electioneering within such polling place, or within one hundred and fifty feet therefrom in any public street or room, or in a public manner.

R. S., 438, L. 1880, ch. 56, § 3, 4, 5, 7.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 24, 35.

§ 103. Delivery of ballots to voters.—While the polls of such election are open, the voters entitled to vote and who have not previously voted thereat, may enter within the guard-rail of the polling place of such election, for the purpose of voting, in such order that there shall not at any time be within such guard-rail more than twice as many voters as there are voting booths thereat, besides the persons lawfully within such guard-rail for other purposes than voting.

Upon entering within the guard-rail, for such purpose, the voter shall forthwith proceed to the ballot clerks and announce his name, and, if in a city, his residence by street and number, or if it have no street number a brief description of the locality thereof, and if required by the inspectors thereat, shall state whether he is over or under twenty-one years of age. If such voter is entitled to vote thereat, and is not challenged, or if challenged and the challenge be determined in his favor, the ballot clerks thereat shall deliver, unfolded, to such voter, a full set, one of each kind, of the official ballots so provided. The ballot clerks may instruct the voter how to fold his ballot, by folding the sample ballot in his presence, or otherwise than by folding an official ballot. Sample ballots may, in the discretion of the ballot clerks, be taken by voters into the voting booths, and left there during the election.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 24.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 11.

§ 104. Preparation of ballots for voting.—The voter upon receiving such official ballots and instructions shall immediately enter one of the voting booths, if there be one vacant, or if none be vacant, as soon as one shall become vacant. Not more than one person shall occupy one voting booth at the same time, except that a voter who shall declare under oath to the inspectors of election that, by reason of total blindness, loss of both hands, such total inability in both hands that he can not use either hand for ordinary purposes, or physical disability by reason of crippled condition or disease to enter the booth alone, he is unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, may select a person for that purpose, who shall be allowed to pass within the guard-rail and receive such ballots and to enter the voting booth with such voter and there assist him in preparing his ballot. The person so selected shall not in any manner request, or seek to persuade or induce such voter to vote any particular ballot or for any particular candidate, and shall not directly or indirectly reveal to any other person the name of any candidate voted for by such voter, or any thing occurring within such voting booth, and he shall not remain within the guard-rail longer than is necessary to assist such disabled voter.

No voter shall otherwise ask or receive the assistance of any person within the polling place in the preparation of his ballot, or divulge to any one within the polling place the name of any candidate for whom he intends to vote, or for whom he has voted. No person shall occupy a voting booth more than ten minutes while all the other booths are occupied.

Within such voting booths and not elsewhere, the name of any person for whom the voter desires to vote for any office named on the official ballot, may be written on the official ballot which the voter proposes to vote; or a paster containing one or more such names or offices may be pasted thereon; or a paster ballot containing the names of all the candidates for whom the voter may vote for all such offices, may be pasted thereon. Every such paster or paster ballot shall be not more than four inches wide, shall be printed on white paper, in plain black ink, and in type uniform with that used on the official ballots. The paper on which such pasters or paster ballots are printed shall not be thicker or heavier than the paper on which the official ballots are printed. All such matter written or pasted on an official ballot shall be written or pasted below the perforated line, on the face of the ballot, being the side and division of the ballot on which the names of offices and candidates are printed, and so that no such pasted matter shall project beyond the sides of the official ballot upon which it is pasted, and so that no part of such paster or paster ballot shall be visible when the ballot is properly folded for voting.

Any name so written or pasted upon a ballot voted, shall be deemed the choice of the voter, notwithstanding the name of another candidate for the same office may be upon the original ballot without being erased, covered, or concealed by the written or pasted matter. But if the names of two or more candidates for the same office are printed on such ballot and a less number of names of candidates for such office be written or pasted thereon, each such name printed on the official ballot shall, if not erased, covered or concealed, be deemed the choice of the voter.

After the voter has prepared his ballot for voting, and before leaving the booth, he shall fold it and each of the other official ballots in his possession first cross-wise by bringing the bottom of each ballot up to the perforated line, and then in the middle lengthwise, in such manner that, when folded, the face of each ballot shall be concealed, and the printed number on the stub and the indorsement on the back of the ballot shall be visible, and so that the stub can be removed without removing any other part of the ballot, and without exposing any part of the face of the ballot below the stub. No voter shall place any other mark upon, or tear or deface any of the ballots so folded by him, and prepared for presentation to the inspectors.

If one of the official ballots delivered to a voter shall be spoiled before so prepared, the voter may upon returning to the ballot clerks all the official ballots delivered to him, obtain from them another full set, one of each kind, of the official ballots; but not more than four sets, in all, of official ballots shall be delivered to any voter. A voter may, after receiving one set of official ballots and before voting, return all such ballots to the ballot clerks and then pass outside the guard-rail; and afterward, while the polls are open, enter once again within the guard-rail for the purpose of voting, and receive and prepare his ballots and vote, the same as if he had not once before been within the guard-rail and received his ballots therefor. But not more than two sets in all of official ballots, shall, on such account, be delivered to any voter, and no voter shall pass within the guard-rail more than twice, at the same election, for the purpose of voting.

R. S., 440, L. 1880, ch. 366, § 3.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 25, 26, 27, 28, 29.

(For oath, see Form 15, post p. 476.)

§ 105. Manner of voting.— When the ballot a voter proposes to vote shall be prepared, and it and all the others of the same set delivered to him shall be properly folded, he shall leave the voting booth with the ballots so folded, and keeping all his ballots so folded, shall proceed at once to the inspector in charge of the ballot box, and first hand to such inspector the ballot he intends to vote. Such inspector shall announce the name of the voter and the printed number on the stubs of the official ballots in the voter's possession. If such voter be entitled then and there to vote, and he shall not be challenged, or if challenged and the challenge be determined in his favor, and if his ballots are properly folded and have no mark or tear visible on the outside thereof, except the printed number on the stubs and the printed indorsement on the back, and if such printed number is the same as that entered on the poll list as the number on the stubs of the set of official ballots last delivered to him by the ballot clerk, such inspector shall receive such ballot which the voter intends to vote, and after removing the stub therefrom, in plain view of the voter and without removing any other part of the ballot, and without unfolding the ballot or in any way exposing any part of the face thereof below the stub, shall deposit it in the proper ballot-box for the reception of voted ballots. The voter shall thereupon, and after the ballot voted by him is deposited in the ballot-box, hand to the inspector in charge of the box for unvoted ballots, all the other official ballots of the same set delivered to him which he does not intend to vote, properly folded, and such inspector after removing the stubs therefrom, in like manner, shall deposit such ballots which the voter does not intend to vote, still so folded in the box for unvoted ballots. Such voter shall then forthwith pass outside the guard-rail, unless he be one of the persons authorized to remain within the guard-rail for other purposes than voting.

If the voter presents ballots improperly folded to such inspector, he may be further instructed as to the manner of properly folding his ballot, otherwise than by folding or unfolding the official ballots, and may return again, not exceeding four times in all, to the voting booth to properly prepare his ballots. No official ballots however folded shall be unfolded outside the voting booth.

No person to whom any official ballots shall be delivered, shall leave the space within the guard-rail until he shall deliver back all such ballots either to the inspectors, or to the ballot clerks.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 25, 27, 29.

§ 106. General duties of ballot clerks.—The ballot clerks shall deliver official ballots to the voters in such order that the numerical order of the numbers printed on the stubs of each set of ballots so delivered, shall be the same as the order of the successive deliveries thereof to the voters, the set of ballots numbered one on the stubs being first delivered and so on.

They shall not deliver to any voter a portion only of one full set of any kind of official ballots provided for such polling place, and all the ballots so delivered together, at one time, to any one voter, shall have the same printed number on their stubs.

They shall, upon the delivery of official ballots to each voter, announce the voter's name, the number printed on the stub of each ballot so delivered, and, if in a city, the voter's residence by street and number, or if it have no street number a brief description of the locality thereof.

Upon the return of a set of ballots to them by any voter, they shall announce the name of the voter returning them, and the printed number on the stubs of the ballots so returned. They shall cancel and carefully preserve all such ballots returned to them by voters, and shall not again deliver any such returned ballots to a voter.

They shall carefully preserve all detached stubs delivered to them by the inspectors.

They shall immediately upon the closing of the polls of each election, prepare and sign a written statement showing the number of full sets of official ballots delivered by them to voters, the number of such sets returned to them, the number of such sets not delivered by them to the voters, and the number of sets of detached stubs returned to them by the inspectors; and shall inclose all such ballots so returned to them, all such ballots not delivered to voters, and all such detached stubs, in a sealed package, and deliver it, together with such written statement, if in the city of Brooklyn, to the chairman of the board of canvassers, and if elsewhere to the chairman of the board of inspectors.

§ 107. General duties of poll clerks.— Each poll clerk at each polling place for which official ballots are required to be provided, shall have a book for keeping the poll list thereof, containing columns headed respectively, numbers on ballots, names of voters, and if in a city, residence of voters. If there shall be more than one ballot-box lawfully required for the reception of votes cast thereat, there shall be an additional column in each poll-list book for each ballot-box, headed with the numbers or other designations, respectively, of such ballot-boxes.

Upon each delivery of a set of official ballots by the ballot clerks to a voter, each poll clerk shall enter upon his poll list, in the appropriate columns, the printed number upon the stubs of the ballots so delivered, the name of the voter, in the alphabetical order of the first letter of his surname, and if in a city, the residence of the voter by street and number, or if it have no street number, a brief description of the locality thereof. If the set of ballots delivered to any voter shall be returned by him to the ballot clerks, the ballot number thereof, so entered on the poll list, shall be canceled, by drawing a mark through it, leaving the number still legible, and upon the delivery of each additional set of ballots by the ballot clerks to the same voter, the poll clerks shall add opposite the name of such voter on the poll list, in the proper column, the printed number on the stubs of such additional set of ballots.

Each poll clerk shall make a memorandum on the poll list kept by him, of every instance of a voter receiving the assistance of another person in the voting booth, in the preparation of his ballot, stating the name of such voter, the substance briefly of the reasons for requiring such assistance as sworn to by the voter, and the name of the person rendering such assistance.

Each poll clerk shall designate upon his poll list, every person entered upon his list, who shall have been challenged and taken either of the oaths upon such challenge, by some appropriate mark opposite the name of each such person.

As each voter offers his ballots to the inspectors, each poll clerk shall report to the inspector whether the number entered on the poll list kept by him, as the number on the stubs of the ballots last delivered to such voter, is the same as the number on the stubs of the ballots so offered. As each voter votes, each poll clerk shall check the name of such voter on his poll list, and if there be more than one ballot-box for the reception of votes cast, shall enter a check in each column headed to correspond to each ballot-box into which a ballot of such voter is deposited. Upon the close of the polls of the election, the poll clerks shall deliver such poll lists to the chairman of the board of inspectors thereof.

§ 108. General duties of inspectors in connection with the balloting.—One of the inspectors of election at each polling place, while the polls of an election thereat are open, shall be designated to receive the ballots from the voters voting. If it be an election for which voters are required to be registered, the other inspectors shall, before any ballots are delivered by the ballot clerks to a voter, ascertain whether such voter is duly registered, and so announce to the ballot clerks, who shall not deliver any ballots to such voter until such inspectors announce that such voter is registered. Upon each delivery of ballots to a voter, such inspectors shall enter opposite the name of such voter upon the register and in each of the certified copies thereof, the number printed on the stubs of the ballots of each set so delivered, canceling any previous number so entered, without rendering it illegible. As each person, so registered, votes, they shall check his name upon such register, and upon each of the two certified copies thereof.

The inspectors shall, forthwith upon detaching the stubs from any set of official ballots, deliver such detached stubs to the ballot clerks.

L. 1890, ch. 262, §§ 25, 26.

§ 109. When unofficial ballots may be voted.—If, for any cause, the official ballots shall not be provided as required by law at any polling place, upon the opening of the polls of an election thereat, or if the supply of official ballots shall be exhausted before the polls are closed, unofficial ballots, printed or written, made as nearly as practicable in the form of the official ballots, may be used. Whenever a candidate for any office, whose name is printed on the official ballot, shall, before election day be or become ineligible or withdraw, voters may use unofficial ballots in voting to fill the office for which such deceased, ineligible or withdrawn candidate was nominated, and the name of the deceased, ineligible or withdrawn candidate shall be considered as having been erased from the official ballot; but such unofficial ballot shall contain only the name of the person voted for in lieu of the deceased, ineligible or withdrawn candidate, under the name of the office for which such person is a candidate.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 21.

§ 110. Challenge, preliminary oath and examination.—A person may be challenged either when he applies to the ballot clerks for official ballots, or when he offers to an inspector the ballot he intends to vote, or previously by notice to that effect to an inspector, by any elector. The name of the person challenging shall not be disclosed by an election officer unless required by a court or a judicial officer. It shall be the duty of each inspector to challenge every person offering to vote, whom he shall know or suspect not to be duly qualified as an elector. If any person offering to vote at any election shall be challenged in relation to his right to vote thereat, one of the inspectors shall tender to him the following preliminary oath: "You do swear (or affirm) that you will fully and truly answer all such questions as shall be put to you touching your place of residence and qualifications as an elector." The inspectors or one of them shall then question the person challenged in relation to his name; his place of residence before he came into that election district; his then place of residence; his citizenship; whether he be a native or naturalized citizen, and if the latter, when, where, and in what court, or before what officer he was naturalized; whether he came into the election district for the purpose of voting at that election; how long he contemplates residing in the election district; and all other matters which may tend to test his qualifications as a resident of the election district, citizenship and right to vote at such election at such polling place. If any person shall refuse to take such preliminary oath when so tendered, or to answer fully any such question which shall be put to him, his vote shall be rejected. After receiving the answer of the person so challenged, the board of inspectors shall point out to him the qualifications, if any, in respect to which he shall appear to them deficient.

Id., 439, L. 1880, ch. 56, § 13.

§ 111. General oath on challenge.—If the person so offering to vote, shall persist in his claim to vote, and the challenge shall not be withdrawn, one of the inspectors shall then administer to him the following oath: “You do swear (or affirm) that you are twenty-one years of age, that you have been a citizen of the United States for ten days, and an inhabitant of this state for one year next preceding this election, and for the last four months a resident of this county, and for thirty days a resident of this election district, and that you have not voted at this election.”

If the person so offering to vote shall be challenged for causes stated in section two of article two of the constitution of this state. the following additional oath shall be administered by one of the inspectors: “You do swear (or affirm) that you have not received or offered, do not expect to receive, have not paid, offered or promised to pay, contributed, offered or promised to contribute to another, to be paid or used, any money or other valuable thing as a compensation or reward for the giving or withholding a vote at this election, and have not made any promise to influence the giving or withholding of any such vote; and that you have not made, or become directly or indirectly interested in any bet or wager depending upon the result of this election."

If the person so offering shall be challenged on the ground of having been convicted of bribery or any infamous crime, the following additional oath shall be administered to him by one of the inspectors: "You do swear (or affirm) that you have not been convicted of bribery or any infamous crime, or if so convicted, that you have been pardoned and restored to all the rights of a citizen."

If any person shall refuse to take either oath so tendered, his vote shall be rejected.

R. S., 418, 419, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 4, Art. 2, §§ 16-19.

§ 112. Minutes respecting persons challenged.—The inspectors of election shall keep a minute of their proceedings in respect to the challenging and administering oaths to persons offering to vote, in which shall be entered, by one of them, the name of every person who shall be challenged or take either of such oaths, specifying in each case whether the preliminary oath or the general oath, or both were taken. At the close of the election, at each polling place, the inspectors thereat shall add to such minutes a certificate to the effect that the same are all such minutes as to all persons challenged at such election.

§ 113. Allowance of time for employes to vote.—Any person entitled to vote at a general election held within this state, shall, on the day of such election, be entitled to absent himself from any service or employment in which he is then engaged or employed, for a period of two hours, while the polls of such election are open. If such voter shall notify his employer, before the day of such election, of such intended absence, and if there-upon two consecutive hours for such absence shall be designated by the employer, and such absence shall be during such designated hours, or if the employer, upon the day of such notice, makes no designation, and such absence shall be during any two consecutive hours while such polls are open, no deduction shall be made from the usual salary or wages of such voter, and no other penalty shall be imposed upon him by his employer, by reason of such absence.

§ 114. Canvass of votes by inspectors.— As soon as the polls of an election are closed, if in the city of Brooklyn, the board of canvassers and if elsewhere, the inspectors of election thereat, shall publicly canvass and estimate the votes and not adjourn or postpone the canvass until it shall be fully completed.

They shall commence by comparing the two poll-lists with each other, correcting any mistakes therein and by counting the ballots found in the ballot-boxes without unfolding them, except so far as to ascertain that each ballot is single and by comparing the ballots found in each box with the number shown by the poll-lists to have been deposited therein. If the ballots found in any box shall be more than the number of ballots so shown to have been deposited therein, such ballots shall all be replaced without being unfolded in the box from which they were taken and one of the inspectors or canvassers shall, without seeing the same, publicly draw out as many ballots as shall be equal to such excess and without unfolding them, deposit them in the box for unvoted ballots.

If two or more ballots shall be found in a ballot-box so folded together as to present the appearance of a single ballot, they shall be destroyed, if the whole number of ballots in such ballot-box exceeds the whole number of ballots shown by the poll-lists to have been deposited therein and not otherwise. If there lawfully be more than one ballot-box for the reception of ballots voted at any one polling place, no ballot, properly indorsed, found in the wrong ballot-box shall be rejected but shall be counted in the same manner as if found in the proper ballot-box, if such ballot shall not together with the ballots found in the proper ballot-box make a total of more ballots than are shown by the poll-lists to have been deposited in the proper box.

No ballot that has not the official indorsement shall be counted except such as are voted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter relating to unofficial ballots.

If requested by any watcher the inspectors or canvassers shall, during the canvass, exhibit any and all ballots cast at such election or town meeting to such watcher fully opened, and in such a condition that he may fully and carefully read and examine the same, but such inspector or canvasser shall not allow any such ballot to be taken from his hands.

When an inspector of election or other election officer or duly authorized watcher shall, during a canvass of the votes, or immediately after the completion thereof, declare his belief that any particular ballot, paster, or paster ballot affixed thereto, has been written upon or marked in any way for the purpose of identification, the inspectors or canvassers shall write on the back of such ballot the words "objected to because marked for identification," or words in substance to that effect, and sign their names thereto, and attach each such ballot to their written statement of the result of the canvass. Each such ballot shall be counted by them the same as if not so objected to.

L. 1890, ch. 262, § 31.

L. 1891, ch. 296, § 16.

§ 115. Certified statement of canvass.—Upon the completion of the canvass, the inspectors, except in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, shall make and sign a written statement thereof, showing the date of the election, the number of the district, the town or ward and the county in which it was held, the whole number of ballots received for each office, the whole number cast for each person for such office and the whole number of ballots objected to because marked for identification, written out at length in words and at the end thereof a certificate signed by the inspectors to the effect that the statement is in all respects correct.

Such inspectors shall securely attach to such statement one official ballot of each kind voted for all the officers to be chosen at such election. They shall state in words, at full length and written partly on such ballot and partly on the paper to which it shall be attached, the whole number of the ballots which were received, having the same names for the same offices as the one attached.

If two or more ballots cast, varying from every official ballot, shall have thereon the names of the same candidates for the same offices throughout, only one of such ballots shall be annexed to such statement and there shall be written partly upon it and partly upon the paper to which it is attached, a statement of the number of such ballots cast. The ballots so attached with such statements so written shall be deemed a part of the certified statement of the canvass by the inspectors.

All other ballots cast at such election not containing the names of the same candidates for the same offices as appear upon any other ballot so cast, shall be securely attached to such statement.

Unless such election be an election of town, city, village or school officers held at a different time from a general election, such inspectors shall forthwith and before adjourning make two certified copies of such certified statement of the result of the canvass.

Forthwith upon the completion of such certified statements, and of such copies thereof if required, and the proclamation of the result, the ballots voted and not required to be attached to such certified statement or to such copies, and the contents of the box for the reception of unvoted ballots, without examination thereof, shall be destroyed.

§ 116. Proclamation of result.— Upon the completion of such canvass and of the certified statement of the result thereof, the chairman of the inspectors of election shall make public oral proclamation of the whole number of votes cast at such election at such polling place for all candidates for each office; upon each proposed constitutional amendment or other question or proposition, if any, voted upon at such election; the whole number of votes given for each person, with the name of office for which he was named on the ballot; and the whole number of votes given respectively for and against each proposed constitutional amendment or other question or proposition, if any, so submitted.

§ 117. Delivery and filing by the inspectors of papers relating to the election.— If the election be other than an election of town, city, village or school officers held at a different time from a general election, the inspectors of each election district except in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, shall forthwith upon the completion of such certified statement of the result, deliver such certified statement to the supervisor of the town in which the election district, if outside of a city, is situated and if in a city, to one of the supervisors of such city. If there be no such supervisor or he be absent or unable to attend the meeting of the county board of canvassers, such certified statement shall be forthwith delivered to an assessor of such town or city. One certified copy of such certified statement of the result of the canvass, the poll-lists of such election and the register and two certified copies thereof checked by such inspectors at such election, shall be forthwith filed by such inspectors or by one of them deputed for that purpose, with the town clerk of such town or the city clerk of such city as the case may be. One certified copy of such certified statement of the result of the canvass, the minutes as to challenges certified by such inspectors and the sealed packages of detached stubs and unvoted ballots prepared and delivered to the chairman of the inspectors by the ballot clerks, shall within twenty-four hours after the completion of such canvass, be filed by such inspectors or by one of them deputed for that purpose with the county clerk of the county in which the election district is situated.

If the election be an election of town, city or village officers, held at a different time from a general election, elsewhere than in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, such certified statement of the result of the canvass, the certified minutes as to challenges, the poll-lists of the election, the packages of detached stubs and unvoted ballots, and if it be an election at which any registered voters can vote, the register and two certified copies thereof used and checked at the election shall, forthwith upon the completion of the canvass, be filed by the inspectors with the clerk of the town, village or city, as the case may be.

Such packages of detached stubs and ballots not voted, prepared by the ballot clerks, shall be filed by inspectors of election in the city of New York, with the board of police commissioners, and by the board of canvassers, in the city of Brooklyn, with the board of election. Such packages shall be preserved in the offices in which they are so filed for one year from the time of the filing thereof, may be opened and examined upon the order of a court or judge, or by any board of canvassers of the returns of election district canvassers, and at the expiration of such year, may be destroyed.

§ 118. Judicial investigation of ballots objected to as marked for identification.—If any such certified statement of the result of a canvass shall show that any of the ballots counted were objected to as marked for identification, a writ of mandamus may, upon the application of any candidate voted for at such election, within thirty days thereafter, issue out of the supreme court, if such statement be filed in a county clerk's office, to the board of county canvassers, or if in any city clerk's office or in any town or village clerk's office, to the board or body of canvassers if any of the returns of the inspectors or canvassers of the election district, and otherwise to the inspectors of election making such statement, requiring a recount of the votes. If the court shall, in the proceedings upon such writ, determine that any such ballot was marked for the purpose of identification, in any manner not proper or necessary for expressing a vote for a person for an office to be filled at such election, the court may order such ballot to be excluded upon a recount of such votes. Inspectors and canvassers of election districts, and boards of canvassers, shall continue in office for the purpose of such proceedings.

136. Transmission of statements of county boards to secretary of state.

SEC. 137. Organization of state board of canvassers.138. Canvass by state board.*139. Certificates of election.140. Record in office of secretary of state of county officers elected.§ 130. Organization of county boards of canvassers.—

The board of supervisors of each county, except New York, and the assessors, if any, to whom the original statements of the results of the canvass of the votes cast at any election in the several election districts in such county shall be delivered in pursuance of law, shall be the county board of canvassers of such county.

The members of the county board of canvassers of each county shall meet at the office of the county clerk thereof on the Tuesday next after each election of public officers held in such county, other than an election of town, city, village or district school officers held at a different time from a general election. Upon such meeting they shall choose one of their number chairman of such board. Such county clerk, or if he be absent or unable to act, the deputy county clerk of such county, shall be the secretary of such board. The secretary of the board shall thereupon administer the constitutional oath of office to the chairman of the board, who shall then administer such oath to each member and to the secretary of the board.

A majority of the members of such board shall constitute a quorum thereof.

If on the day fixed for such meeting, a majority of any such board shall not attend, the members of the board then present shall elect the chairman of the board and adjourn to some convenient hour of the next day.

R. S., 422, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Art. 1, §§ 1-5. (Post, pp. 2349-50.)

§ 131. Production of election district statements before county board.—Thereupon the county clerk shall deliver to such board all the original and certified copies of such statements of results of canvass filed with or delivered to him. All such original statements delivered to the members of such board shall be then delivered to the board. If any member of the county board of canvassers shall be unable to attend the first meeting of such board, he shall at or before such meeting cause to be delivered to the county clerk of such county all such original statements delivered to him.

If at the first meeting of a county board of canvassers of any county all such original statements of the results of the canvass of the votes cast at such election in all the election districts in the county, shall not be produced before the board, the board shall adjourn to some convenient hour of the next day and the county clerk of such county shall, by special messenger or otherwise, obtain such missing original statements if practicable or certified copies thereof in time to be produced before such board at its next meeting.

At such adjourned meeting or as soon as an original or certified copy of such statement of the result of the canvass of the votes cast at such election in every election district in the county shall be produced before such board, the board shall from such original statements and certified copies proceed to canvass the votes cast in such county at such election other than for town, city or village officers or upon propositions or questions upon which the voters of a portion only of such county were entitled to vote.

R. S., 422-4, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Art. 1, §§ 6, 12-14, 16-17.

§ 132. Correction of clerical errors in election district statements. — If upon proceeding to canvass such votes, it shall clearly appear to any county board of canvassers that certain matters are omitted from any such statement or copy, which should have been inserted, or that any merely clerical mistake exist therein, they shall cause such statement or copy to be sent by one of their number, whom they shall depute for that purpose to the inspectors or other canvassers whose names are subscribed thereto, for correction, and the member so deputed shall immediately give notice to such inspectors or canvassers, who shall forthwith meet and make such correction as the facts of the case require; but such inspectors or canvassers shall not change or alter any decision before made by them, but shall only cause their canvass to be correctly stated. The board of county canvassers may adjourn from day to day, not exceeding three days in all, for the purpose of obtaining and receiving such corrected statements.

R. S., 423, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Art. 1, § 15.

§ 133. Mandamus for correction of errors by county boards of canvassers.—The supreme court may, upon affidavit presented by any voter showing that errors have occurred in any statement or determination made by any county board of canvassers, make an order requiring such board to correct such errors, or show cause why such correction should not be made. If such board fail or neglect to make such correction, or to show cause as aforesaid, the court may compel such board by writ of mandamus to correct such errors; and if it shall have made its determination and dissolved, to reconvene for the purpose of making such corrections. Such meeting of the board of county canvassers shall be deemed a continuation of its regular session for the purpose of making such corrections as the court shall order, and the statement and certificates shall be made and filed as the court shall direct, and shall stand in lieu of the original certificates and statements so far as they shall vary therefrom, and shall in all places be treated with the same effect as if such corrected statement had been a part of the original required by law.

R. S., 441, L. 1880, ch. 460, §§ 1, 2.

§ 134. Statements of canvass by county board.—Upon the completion by a county board of canvassers of their canvass of the votes so cast in such county, they shall make separate statements thereof as follows: One statement as to all the votes, if any, so cast for all the candidates for each office of elector of president and vice-president of the United States for which the electors of such county were entitled to vote at such election; another statement as to all the votes so cast for all the candidates for each state office and for each office of representative in congress for which the electors of such county or any portion thereof are entitled to vote; another statement as to all the votes, if any, cast upon every proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition or question duly submitted to all the electors of the state at such election; another statement as to all the votes cast for all the candidates for each office of member of assembly for which the electors of such county or any portion thereof, were entitled to vote at such election; another statement as to all the votes, if any, so cast for all the candidates for each county office and office of school commissioner for which the electors of such county or any portion thereof, were entitled to vote at such election; another statement as to all the votes, if any, so cast upon any proposition or question upon which only the electors of such county were entitled to vote at such election.

Each such statement shall set forth in words written out at length all the votes so cast for all the candidates for each such office, and if any such office was to be filled at such election by the electors of a portion only of such county, all the votes cast for all the candidates for each office in any such portion of the county designating it by its proper district number or other appropriate designation, the names of each such candidate and the number of votes so cast for each, the whole number of votes so cast upon any proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition or question and of all the votes so cast in favor of and against the same respectively.

If upon such canvass any statement or duly certified copy of statement of the result of the canvass of the votes of any election district in such county, shall have any ballot annexed thereto, indorsed by the inspectors or canvassers to the effect in substance that it was objected to as marked for identification, the county board of canvassers shall count such ballot as though not so marked, unless otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, but they shall add to each appropriate statement in which the count of any such ballot or portion thereof is included, a statement of the whole number of ballots so indorsed and counted for all the candidates for each office and the number of such ballots so counted for each candidate.

Each such statement shall be certified as correct over the signatures of the members of the board or a majority of them and shall be filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of such county.

R. S., 422-3, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Art. 1, §§ 7-9.

§ 135. Decisions of county board as to persons elected.— Upon the completion of such statements, each county board of canvassers shall determine what person has been so elected to each office of member of assembly to be filled by the electors of such county, if constituting one assembly district, or in each assembly district therein if there be more than one, and each person elected to each county office of such county to be filled at such election, and if there be more than one school commissioner district in such county, each person elected to the office of school commissioner to be filled at such election in each such district. The county clerk of the county of Hamilton shall forthwith transmit to the county clerk of the county of Fulton, a certified copy of the statement so filed and recorded in his office, of the county board of canvassers of Hamilton county, as to all the votes so cast in Hamilton county for all the candidates and for each of the candidates for the office of member of assembly of the assembly district composed of Fulton and Hamilton counties; and the county clerk of Fulton county shall forthwith deliver the same to the Fulton county board of canvassers, who shall from such certified copy and from their own statement as to the votes so cast for such office in Fulton county, determine what person was at such election elected to such office.

Such board of each county shall determine whether any proposition or question submitted to the electors of such county only, has been adopted or rejected.

All such determinations shall be reduced to writing and signed by the members of such board, or a majority of them, and filed and recorded in the office of the county clerk of such county, who shall cause a copy thereof and of the statements filed and recorded in his office upon which such determinations were based, to be published in at least one newspaper published in such county, and in such other newspapers published therein as the county board of canvassers shall direct.

The clerk of each county shall prepare as many certified copies of each certificate of the determination of the county board of canvassers of such county as there are persons declared elected in such certificate, and shall, without delay, transmit such copies to the persons therein declared to be elected, respectively.

Id., 433, L. 1844, ch. 331, §§ 2, 3.

§ 136. Transmission of copies of proceedings of county boards of canvassers to the secretary of state.—Upon the filing in the office of a county clerk of a statement of the county board of canvassers as to the votes cast for candidates for the offices of electors of president and vice-president, or as to the votes cast for candidates for state offices and representatives in congress, or as to the votes cast upon any proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition or question submitted to all the electors of the state, such county clerk shall forthwith make three certified copies of each such statement, and within five days after the filing thereof in his office, transmit by mail, one of such copies to the secretary of state, one to the governor, and one to the comptroller. The governor and comptroller shall forthwith upon the receipt thereof by them, deliver such certified copies to the secretary of state. If any such certified copy shall not be received by the secretary of state on or before the last day of November next after a general election, or within twenty days after a special election, he shall dispatch a special messenger to obtain such certified copy from the county clerk required to transmit the same, and such county clerk shall immediately upon demand of such messenger, at his office, make and deliver such a certified copy to such messenger who shall as soon as practicable deliver it to the secretary of state.

The county clerk of each county shall transmit to the secretary of state, within twenty days after a general election and within ten days after a special election, a list of the name and residence of each person determined by the board of county canvassers of such county to be elected member of assembly, school commissioner, and to any county office; and on or before the fifteenth day of December in each year, a certified copy of the official canvass of the votes cast in such county by election districts at the next preceding general election.

The secretary of state shall obtain from the governor and comptroller such certified copies so transmitted to them, and file the same in his office.

R. S., 424, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Arts. 1, 2, 3, §§ 19-20, 22-6.

Id., 427, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 2, §§ 4, 5.

Id., 438, L. 1873, ch. 474.

§ 137. Organization of state board of canvassers.— The secretary of state, attorney-general, comptroller, state engineer and surveyor, and treasurer shall constitute the state board of canvassers, three of whom shall be a quorum. If three of such officers shall not attend on a day duly appointed for a meeting of the board, the secretary of state shall forthwith notify the mayor and recorder of the city of Albany to attend such meeting, and he shall forthwith attend accordingly and shall, with the other such officers attending, constitute such board.

The secretary of state shall appoint a meeting of such board at his office, or at the office of the treasurer or comptroller on or before the fifteenth day of December next after each general election, and within forty days after each special election, to canvass the statements of boards of county canvassers of such election. He shall notify each member of the board of such meeting. The board may adjourn such meeting from day to day, not exceeding a term of five days.

R. S., 425, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Arts. 3, 4, §§ 27-30, 37.

Id., 427, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 2, § 14. .

§ 138. Canvass by state board.—Such board shall at such meeting proceed to canvass the certified copies of the statements of the county boards of canvassers of each county in which such election was held. If any member of such board shall dissent from a decision of the board, or shall deem any of the acts or proceedings of the board to be illegal or irregular, and shall protest against the same, he shall state such dissent or protest in writing, signed by him, setting forth his reasons therefor, and deliver it to the secretary of state who shall file it in his office.

Upon the completion of such canvass, such board shall make separate statements written out in words at length and signed by the members of such board or a majority thereof, of the whole number of votes cast for all the candidates for each office shown by such certified copies to have been voted for, and of the whole number of votes cast for each of such candidates, the name of each office and if the voters of a district only of the state were entitled to vote for candidates therefor, the name and number of such district, and the name of each candidate, and the determination of the board of the person thereby elected to such office; the whole number of votes shown by such certified copies to have been cast upon each proposed constitutional amendment or other proposition or question shown by such copies to have been voted upon, the whole number of votes cast in favor of and against each respectively, and the determination of the board as to whether it was adopted or rejected. Each such statement, dissent and protest shall be delivered to the secretary of state and recorded in his office.

R. S., 425, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Arts. 4, 5, §§ 31-6, 38.

Id., 427, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 2, § 15.

§ 139. Certificates of election.— The secretary of state shall thereupon forthwith transmit a copy, certified by his signature and official seal, of each such statement as to votes cast for candidates for any office, to the person shown thereby to have been elected thereto. He shall prepare a general certificate under the seal of this state, and attested by him as secretary thereof, addressed to the house of representatives of the United States, in that congress for which any person shall have been chosen, of a due election of the persons so chosen at each election, as representatives of this state in congress; and shall transmit the same to the house of representatives, at their first meeting. If either of the persons so chosen at such election shall have been elected to supply a vacancy in the office of representative in congress, it shall be mentioned by the secretary of state in the statements to be prepared by him.

Id., 427, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 2, § 16.

§ 140. Record in office of secretary of state of county officers elected.— The secretary of state shall enter in a book to be kept in his office, the names of the respective county officers elected in this state, including school commissioners, specifying the counties and districts for which they were severally elected and their places of residence, the offices to which they were respectively elected, and the terms of office.

R. S., 426, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 5, Art. 5, § 43.

ARTICLE VII.

ELECTION OF REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS AND ELECTORS OF PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT.

- SECTION 160. Representatives in congress, when and how chosen.
161. Electors of president and vice-president, when and how to be chosen.
162. Meeting and organization of the electoral college.
163. Secretary of state to furnish college with lists of electors.
164. Vote of the electors and their list of persons voted for.
165. Appointment of messenger and his duties.
166. Other lists to be furnished.
167. Compensation of electors.

§ 160. Representatives in congress, when and how chosen.—Representatives in the house of representatives of the congress of the United States shall be chosen in the several congressional districts at the general election held therein in the year 1892 and every second year thereafter. If any such representative shall resign he shall forthwith transmit a notice of his resignation to the secretary of state and if a vacancy shall occur in any such office the clerk of the county in which such representative shall have resided at the time of his election shall, without delay, transmit a notice thereof to the secretary of state.

R. S., 426, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 1, §§ 1, 2.

§ 161. Electors of president and vice-president, when and how chosen.—At the general election in November, preceding the time fixed by the law of the United States for the choice of president and vice-president of the United States, there shall be elected by general ticket as many electors of president and vice-president as this state shall be entitled to, and each elector in this state shall have a right to vote for the whole number, and the several persons to the number required to be chosen having the highest number of votes shall be declared and be duly appointed electors.

R. S., 427, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 2, § 3.

§ 162. Meeting and organization of the electoral college.—The electors of president and vice-president shall convene at the capitol on the second Monday in January next following their election, and those of them who shall be assembled at twelve o'clock noon of that day, shall immediately after that hour fill, by ballot, and by plurality of votes, all vacancies in the electoral college, occasioned by death, refusal to serve, or neglect to attend at that hour, of any elector, or occasioned by an equal number of votes having been given for two or more candidates. The electoral college being thus completed, they shall then choose a president, and one or more secretaries from their own body.

L. 1889, ch. 1, § 1.

§ 163. Secretary of state to furnish college with lists of electors.—The secretary of state shall prepare three lists, setting forth the names of such electors, and the canvass under the laws of this state, of the number of votes given for each person for whose election any and all votes were given, together with the certificate of determination thereon, by the state canvassers; procure to the same the signature of the governor; affix thereto the seal of the state, and deliver the same thus signed and sealed to the president of the college of electors, on the second Monday in January.

R. S., 428, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 3, § 23.

§ 164. Vote of the electors and their lists of persons voted for.—Immediately after the organization of the electoral college, the electors shall then and there vote by ballot for president and vice-president, one of whom at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots, the person voted for as vice-president.

They shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice-president, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and after annexing thereto one of the lists received from the secretary of state, they shall seal up the same, certifying thereon, that lists of the votes of this state for president and vice-president are contained therein.

R. S., 428, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 3, §§ 24, 25.

§ 165. Appointment of messenger and his duties.— The electors shall then, by writing under their hands, or under the hands of a majority of them, appoint a person to take charge of the lists so sealed up, and to deliver the same to the president of the senate, at the seat of government of the United States, before the third Monday in the said month of January.

In case there shall be no president of the senate at the seat of government, on the arrival of the person intrusted with the lists of the votes of the electors, then such person shall deliver the lists of votes in his custody into the office of the secretary of state of the United States.

R. S., 428, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 3, §§ 26, 27.

§ 166. Other lists to be furnished.— The electors shall also forward forthwith, by the post-office in the city of Albany, to the president of the senate of the United States, at the seat of government, and deliver forthwith to the judge of the United States for the northern district of the state of New York, similar lists signed, annexed, sealed up and certified in the manner aforesaid.

R. S., 428, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 3, § 28.

§ 167. Compensation of electors.— Every elector of the state for the election of a president and vice-president of the United States, who shall attend at any election of those officers and give his vote at the time and place appointed by law, shall be entitled to receive for his attendance at such election, the sum of fifteen dollars per day, together with ten cents per mile, each way, from his place of residence, by the most usual traveled route, to the place of meeting of such electors, to be audited by the comptroller upon the certificate of the secretary of state, and paid by the treasurer.

R. S., 429, L. 1842, ch. 130, tit. 6, Art. 3, § 29.

§ 168. Laws repealed.— Of the laws enumerated in the schedule hereto annexed, that portion specified in the last column is repealed.

Penal Code, § 41c.

§ 41u. Political assessments.— Any person who,

1. Being an officer or employe of the state, or of a political subdivision thereof, directly or indirectly uses his authority or official influence to compel or induce any other officer or employe of the state or a political subdivision thereof, to pay or promise to pay any political assessments; or

3. Being such an officer or employe and having charge or control of any building, office or room occupied for any purpose of the state or of a political subdivision thereof, consents that any person enter the same for the purpose of making, collecting, receiving or giving notice of any political assessment; or

4. Enters or remains in any such office, building or room, or sends or directs any letter or other writing thereto, for the purpose of giving notice of demanding or collecting, or being therein, gives notice of, demands, collects or receives, any political assessment;

5. Prepares or makes out, or takes any part in preparing or making out, any political assessment, subscription or contribution, with the intent that the same shall be sent or presented to or collected of any such officer or employe; or

6. Sends or presents any political assessment, subscription or contribution to, or requests its payment of, any such officer or employe,

Is guilty of a misdemeanor.

R. S., 459, L. 1883, ch. 422, §§ 1, 2, 4.

L. 1884, ch. 357.

§ 41v. Corrupt use of position or authority.—Any person who,

1. While holding a public office, or being nominated or seeking a nomination or appointment therefor, corruptly uses or promises to use, directly or indirectly, any official authority or influence possessed or anticipated, in the way of conferring upon any person, or in order to secure, or aid any person in securing, any office or public employment, or any nomination, confirmation, promotion or increase of salary, upon consideration that the vote or political influence or action of the person so to be benefited or of any other person, shall be given or used in behalf of any candidate, officer or party or upon any other corrupt condition or consideration; or

2. Being a public officer or employe of the state or a political subdivision having, or claiming to have, any authority or influence affecting the nomination, public employment, confirmation, promotion, removal, or increase or decrease of salary of any public officer or employe, or promises or threatens to use, any such authority or influence, directly or indirectly to affect the vote or political action of any such public officer or employe, or on account of the vote or political action of such officer or employe; or

3. Makes, tenders or offers to procure, or cause any nomination or appointment for any public office or place, or accepts or requests any such nomination or appointment, upon the payment or contribution of any valuable consideration, or upon an understanding or promise thereof, or

4. Makes any gift, promise or contribution to any person, upon the condition or consideration of receiving an appointment or election to a public office or a position of public employment, or for receiving or retaining any such office or position, or promotion, privilege, increase of salary or compensation therein, or exemption from removal or discharge therefrom, is punishable by imprisonment for not more than two years or by a fine of not more than three thousand dollars or both.

Id., 459-60, L. 1883, ch. 422, §§ 3, 7, 8.

41w. Failure to file candidate's statement of expenses.—Every candidate who is voted for at any public election held within this state shall, within ten days after such election, file as hereinafter provided an itemized statement showing in detail all the moneys contributed or expended by him, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person, in aid of his election. Such statement shall give the names of the various persons who received such moneys, the specific nature of each item, and the purpose for which it was expended or contributed. There shall be attached to such statement an affidavit subscribed and sworn to by such candidate, setting forth in substance that the statement thus made is in all respects true, and that the same is a full and detailed statement of all moneys so contributed or expended by him, directly or indirectly, by himself or through any other person, in aid of his election. Candidates for offices to be filled by the electors of the entire state, or any division or district thereof greater than a county, shall file their statements in the office of secretary of state. The candidates for town, village and city offices, excepting in the city of New York, shall file their statements in the office of the town, village or city clerk, respectively, and in cities wherein there is no city clerk, with the clerk of the common council of the city wherein the election occurs. Candidates for all other offices, including all officers in the city and county of New York, shall file their statements in the office of the clerk of the county wherein the election occurs. Any candidate for office who refuses or neglects to file a statement as prescribed in this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall also forfeit his office.

Penal Code, section forty-one-d.
